Dear Abbey

Touring London was a highlight of the summer for Claire-Lauren Schultz (11), Katharine Schultz (10), and Arianna Schultz (age 11). The three sisters are seen here in front of Westminster Abbey, the site of royal marriages and funerals.

Flipmode Expedition

Standing in awe of one of the Seven Wonders of the World--the Great Wall of China--are buddies Jon Chuan (12) and Gene Davis (12). The Wall was just one of the amazing sights the guys saw while in the Far East.

Deep Thoughts

Surveying the scenery, Julie White (12) proves the Grand Canyon ain't just another hole in the ground.

Sky Scraper

Reaching new heights at the CN Tower in Toronto, Canada are Chris Bradley (12) and brother Alex (age 4).

Free Falling

Kayaking on the Kapaolani River and hiking to the falls were ways Crystal Erlendson (11) spent her summer.

Supermodels

Sunning and partying in Oceanside Beach during 4th of July weekend are Laura Mendez (12), Yuliana Marquez (12), and their friend Norma Salcedo.

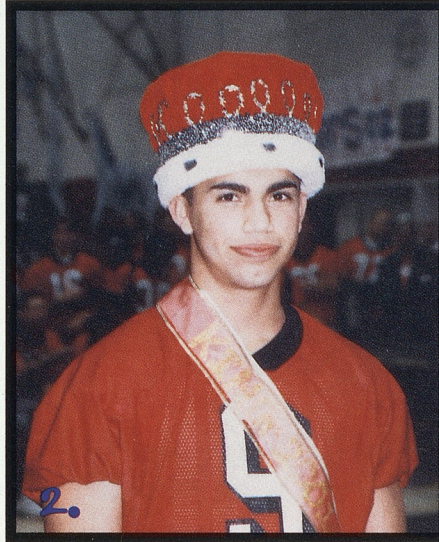

Wet-Suited

Bubbling with friendship and looking for fun are Amber Boylan (12) and Danielle Burgess (12), scuba diving in Kawai Napili Beach, Hawaii.

POWER OF DANCE

Proud and Spirited

Not afraid to get a little crazy are Ozzy Paz (12), Adam Ahmed (12), Jarrod Daguman (11), Branden Shoemaker (12), Caulin Ross (12), and Gene Davis (12).

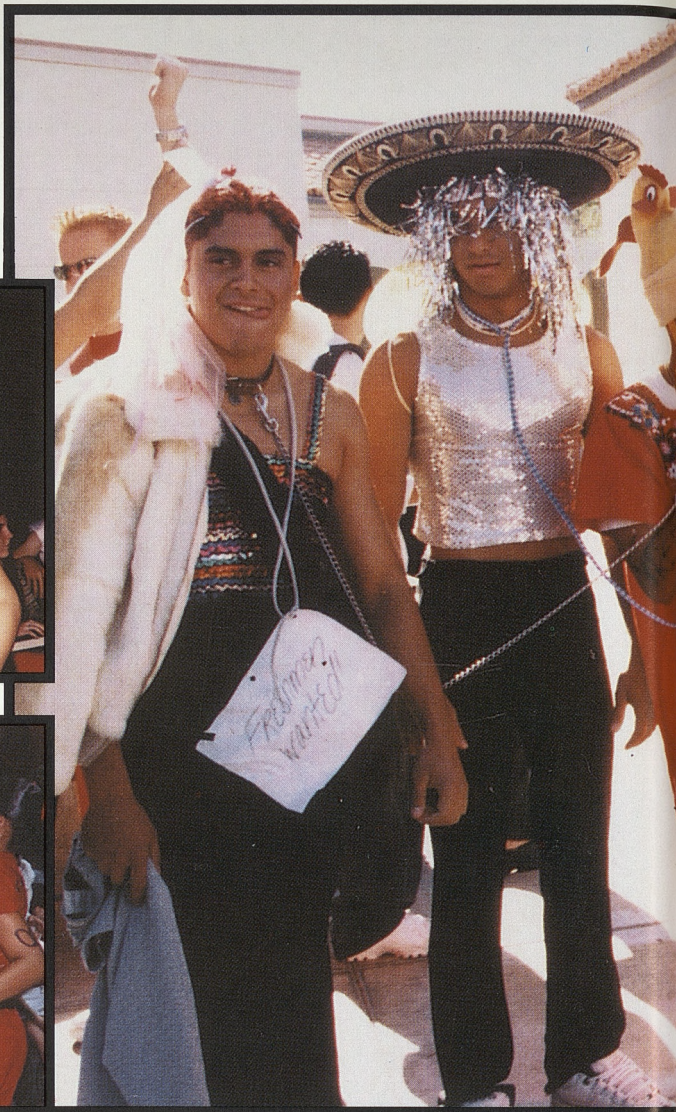

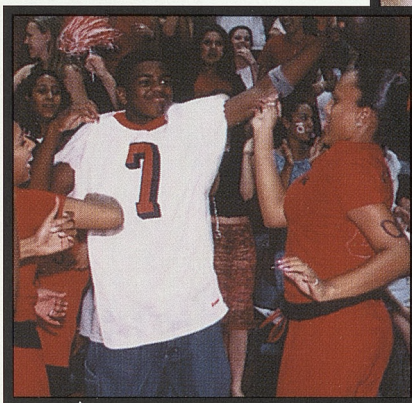

Friends at Last

Proving that you don't have to be in the same class to get along are Jovelle Jove (10) and Cheriss Bayard (11).

Caught in the Act

Jumping for joy and showing all that he is "da bomb" is Donnell Berry (12).

All '04 One

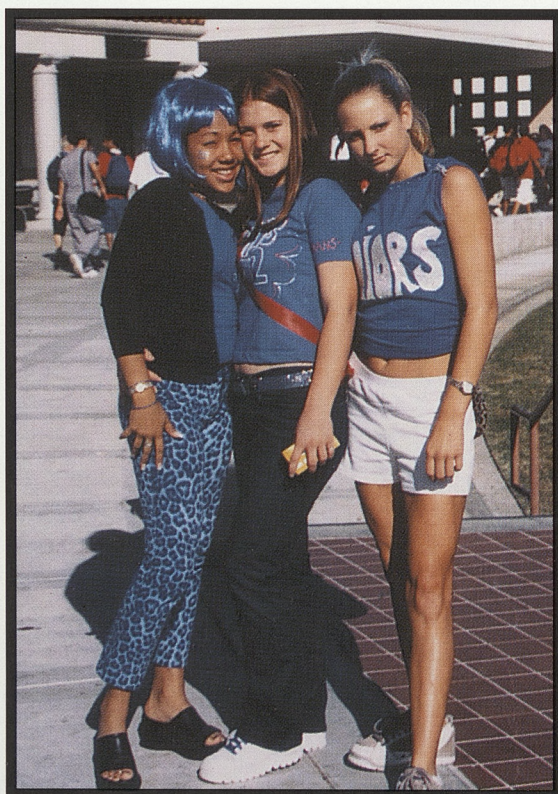

Showing frosh pride are Josh Zappala-Yeron, Willy Kleindienst, Julie Westom, Talia Glass, and Jamie Bayard.

Not Easy Being Green

All hyped up at the first pep assembly are sophomores Amanda Mullins, Ann Marie Webster, Jaclynn Chaney, Samantha Cornet, Ally Simon, Morgann Weinschenk, Rachel Taylor, and Megan Brotzman.

'02 is Better Than '01

Big, bad, blue juniors: Cherice Petek, Christine Soto, and Heather Weinschenk.

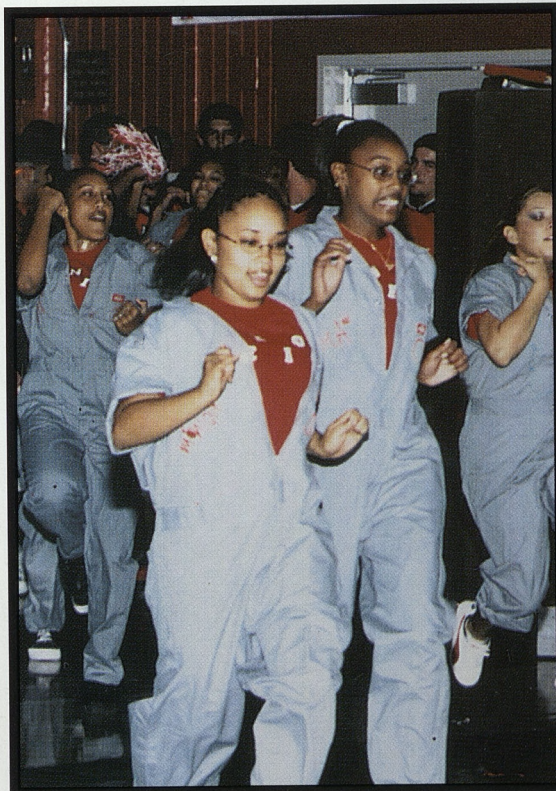

Dancin' Machines
Pumpin' up the junior class are Alisha Caldwell (11) and Erika Abrille (11).

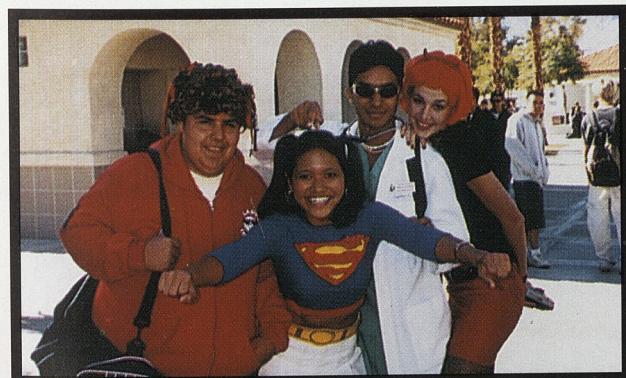

Stomp the Streets
Marching in the parade, representing Dance Club and Dance Ensemble is Stephanie Korodi (12).

The Real Pep Squad
Shouting out for the football team are seniors, Aurora Jimenez, Jessica Huerta, Jazmin Lara, Holly Autrey, Karla Acuña, Kat Palacios, Melissa Green, Lily Cardenas, and Jose Gonzalez.

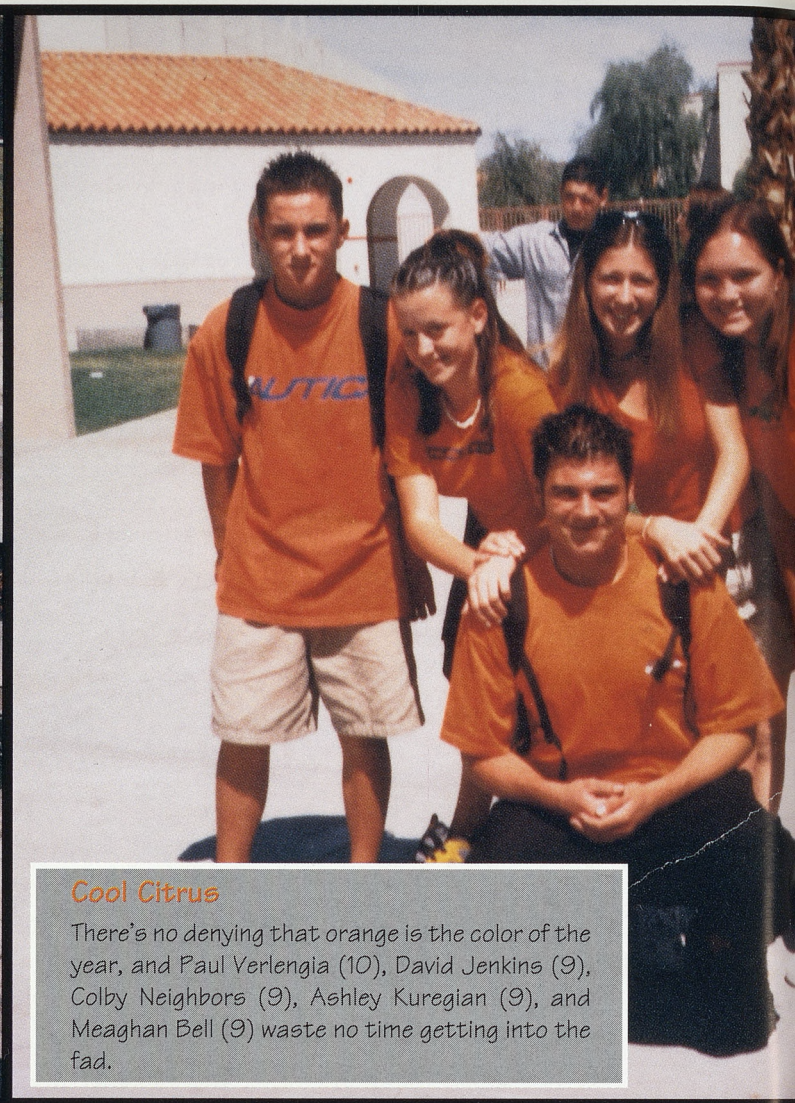

Superfreaks
Spreading the holiday spirit on Costume Day are seniors Jorge Ramirez, Maureen Chung, Adam Ahmed, and Ashleigh Micklis.

Gettin' Groovy
Out to earn more spirit points than the juniors in the dance contest at the pep assembly are seniors Catherine Martikke, Roshanda Young, Tameca Williams, and Christina Mendez.

Coordinated Chicks

Walking around campus, one can't help but notice the high level of color-coordinated people. There are those who match their hats to their shoes and bags, and there are those who coordinate their shirts to the color of their hair. Maggie Zepeda (12) and Tracy Carpenito (10) are prime examples of this trend. Down to their shoelaces, they coordinate all the colors of their outfits.

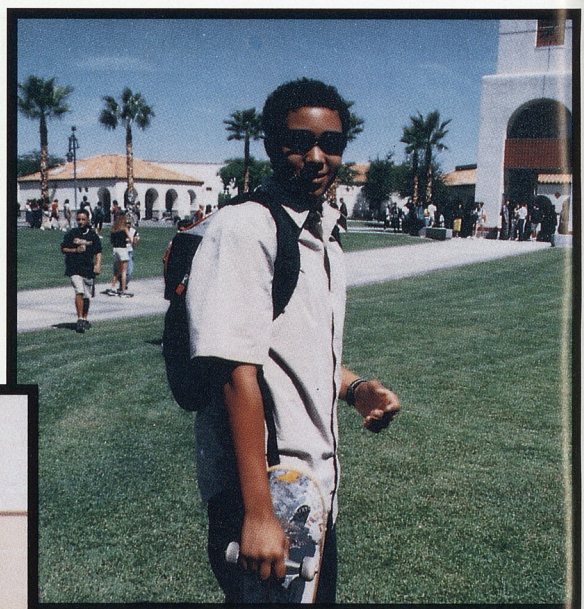

Cool Citrus

There's no denying that orange is the color of the year, and Paul Verlengia (10), David Jenkins (9), Colby Neighbors (9), Ashley Kuregian (9), and Meaghan Bell (9) waste no time getting into the fad.

Converse Crew

Making sure everyone knows what shoes are the best are "All-Stars" Alex Kennedy (12), Tera Bell (12), Sara Lien (12), Heidi Wilson (faculty), Luke Robertson (12), and Erin Graham (12).

Awesome Accessory

Style can come from different things, be it shoes or bags, but Homer Welsh's (10) style radiates from a four-wheeled contraption.

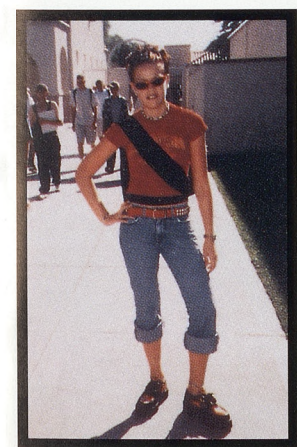

Backbag Buddies

Getting a hold of the trend of crossing bags over one shoulder are Lauren Freeman (12) and Ashleigh Micklis (12).

fashion

Fiesty Femme

Fiery shoes, studded belt, edgy shades, and a whole lot of attitude make Lanay Salzar (9) a girl to be reckoned with.

Hip Hop Hottie

Not only is Jon Labuen (12) a lyricist master, he is also a master of dressing well.

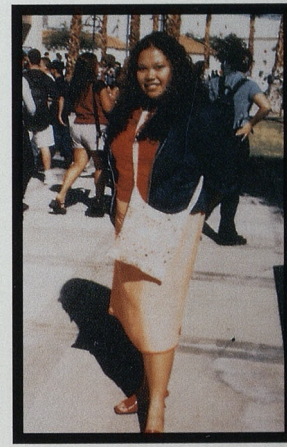

Riot Royalty

No matter where Caitlin Weiss (12) goes, everyone makes way because no one can top this riot grrrl's style.

GQ Gorgeous

Straight from the pages of Gentlemen's Quarterly, Jordan Fife (12) makes every day a fashion show.

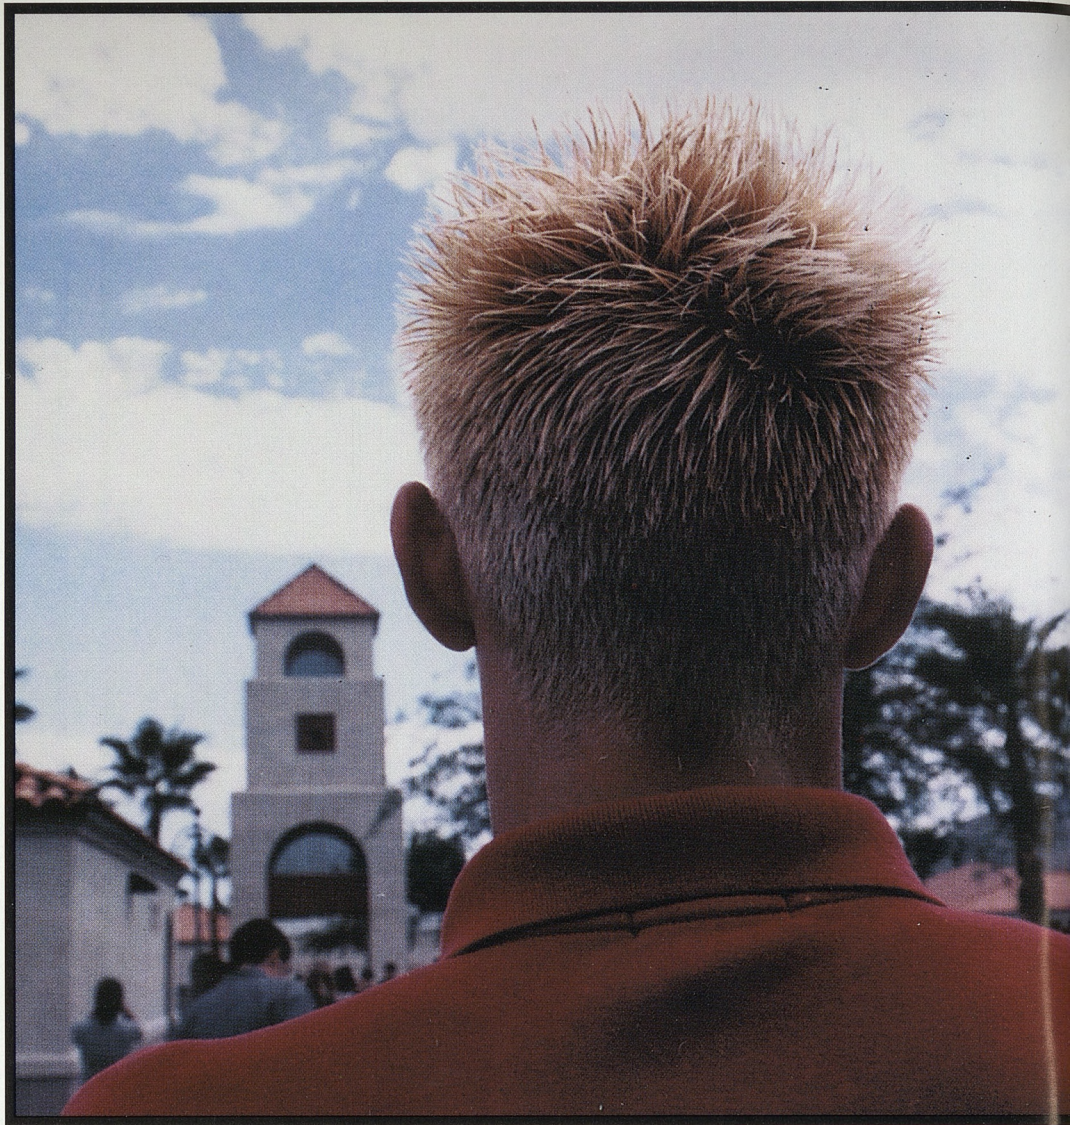

Priceless Piece

If fashion is an art, Karla Acuña (12) is an artist and her style of dress a masterpiece.

Spike

Glowing golden in the first-period sun, Zoe Adams's do (12) lights the way.

Curly Cutie

Being beautiful with all those curls and bright smile is Charis Burton (11).

Q. What is the worst hair experience you have ever had?

"I made the mistake of putting the color 'ash' in my hair, and it turned puke green."

—Yesenia "Sunny" Mota (11)

Q. How much would someone have to pay you to shave your head?

"Five hundred dollars, because it's not something I would do on a regular basis."

—Dale Diller (10)

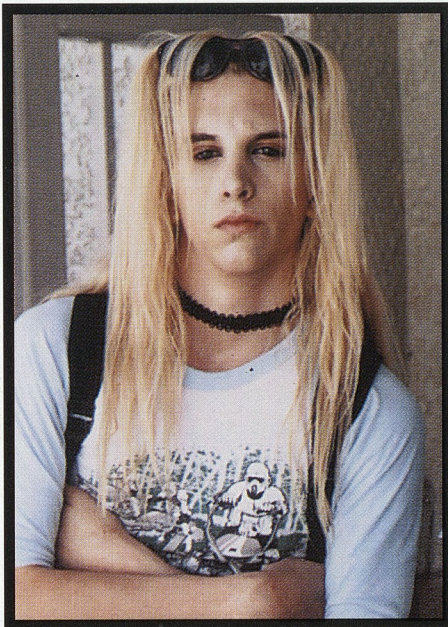

Ready or Not ...

HAIR

We Go

Goldilocks

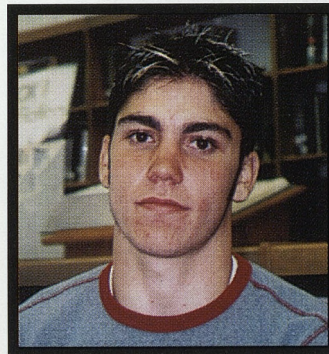

Bringing back the '80's rock star look is junior Jude Petrilla.

Q. What's the most extreme thing you would ever do to your hair?

"Shave my head, but only if I lost a bet."

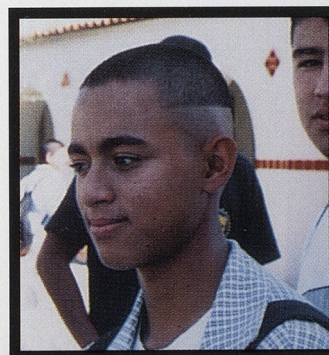

—Tiara Martinez (11)

Q. Why do you think girls spend so much time on their hair?

"Because they have a lot of it. And they don't do it for us guys; they do it for the competition with other girls."

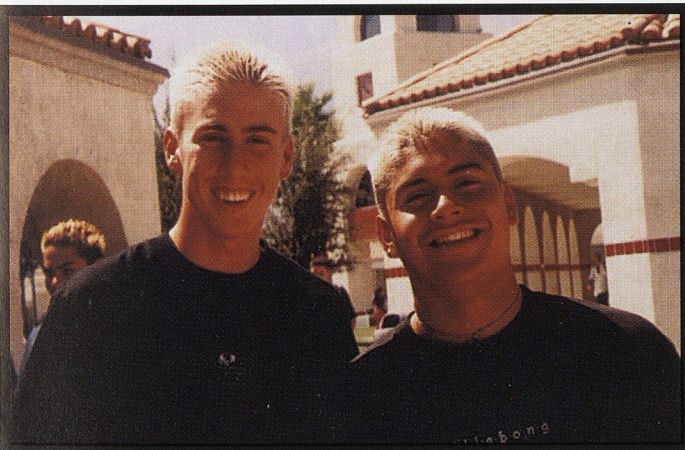

—Angelo Lavorgna (12)

Q. Why did you choose to cut your hair this style?

"I wanted a faded but slim cut, and I just wanted to be in style."

—Sergio Avilla (9)

Carrot Tops

Standing out with their spiked orange hair are Oscar Molina (10) and Andre Pérez (10).

Funky Frost

Two-of-a-kind hairdos are sported by seniors John Murrell and Ozzy Paz as they make their way to sixth period.

Halloween

All Hallow's Eve

Coming together to teach us how to "hollow" are Bilal Zafar (12), Nick Valdez (12), Jenna Higuera (11), Pawan Kaushal (12), Ray Galvan (11), Jacob McMeans (12), Araceli Ramirez (12), Mrs. McKinney, Alexis Siani (11), Kristia Temple (11), and Erika Abrille (11).

Kiss and Tell

Taking time after school to smooch with his puppy Spike (age 6 mosnths) is Ryan Armstrong (12).

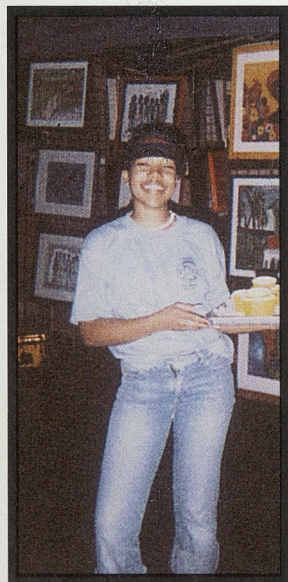

Deep Blue Sea

Riding the waves on a week-end retreat to Laguna is Ruthie Cadenhead (12).

What a '01 derful Time

Working Hard or Hardly Working?

Giving out samples of Lapperts ice cream during a "hard day at work" is Cherice Petek (11).

Q. Who do you enjoy spending your weekends with and why?

I enjoy spending time with my best friends because we have a lot in common.
-Brianne Freeman (10)

Q. What is your favorite thing to do after school?

Kickin' it with my homies and playing pool at Sharky's.
- Elysia Vasquez (11)

Q. What do you enjoy doing on the weekends?

My weekends are always spent with my girls. We can always go to a tight party, a rave, or just a girls' night out. Either way, I'm with the people I love.
-Christina Evigan (11)

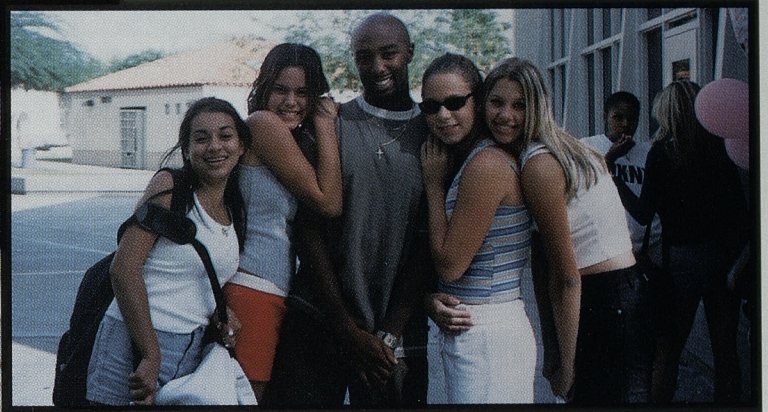

Q. What do you usually do after school?

I go to cheer practice and hang out with my girls, then I go to the gym, because I'm a big, buff girl.
-Heather DiBona (11)

Teacher's Pets

Kissing up to Coach P. (teacher Will Pellum) are JV cheerleaders Jilda Rubio (11), Renee Rutledge (10), Amanda Ferrari (10), and Tracy Carpenito (10).

All For The Thrill

Whasssssuppp

Cool guys Zach Woodward (11) and Jorge Villalobos (12) are perfect examples of skateboarders. They live for skateboarding, going through decks like it's nothing.

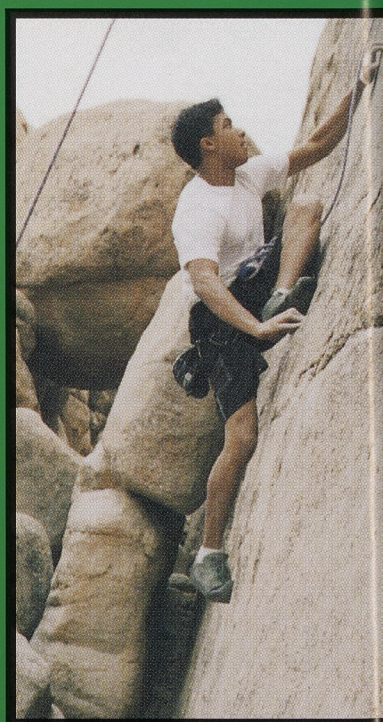

Going All The Way

Jumpstarting his Honda go-kart over summer vacation at the Perris Racetrack in Perris, CA is Ryan Armstrong (12).

On Top of the World

Scaling to the top of everything he does is Fraz "Adam" Ahmed (12). Adam regularly rockclimbs at Joshua Tree National Monument.

Flying High

Popping a nasty wheelie is Casey Campbell (12). Casey regularly rides the dunes of Edum Hill; that is, when his bike is working.

Kickflip Queen

Ollieing in the middle of the cul-de-sac is Anna Carpenter (11). Anna, who has been skating for quite some time now, sets the standard for female skateboarders. She's our hero!

Many kids today relieve the stresses of life, school, family, and friends by doing what they love to do: extreme sports. The most popular out-of-school "extreme" activity is skateboarding, followed closely by rollerblading, biking, and snowboarding. A recent addition to the list of extreme sports are the scooters that are all the rage. Popular extreme sportists include Tony Hawk (skateboarding), Dave Merra (biking), and Kelly Slater (surfing).

Popular Name-Brands for Skateboarding:

BLACK LABEL, Shorty's, Element, and Independent

Popular Name-Brands for Rollerblading:

Senate and K2

Popular Name-Brands for Surfing:

Roxy-Quiksilver, Rusty, Billabong and Reef

Popular Name-Brands for Snowboarding:

K2, World Industries, and Forum

Captain Destructo

Bursting with skills by the Taco Shop is Mikey Doris (11). He's often seen doing madd tricks, like this massive kickflip over a six-stair.

Crash and Burn

Slamming a 540-to-Crash behind where Tech Skateshop used to be is Derek Martin (11).

'01 for the Road

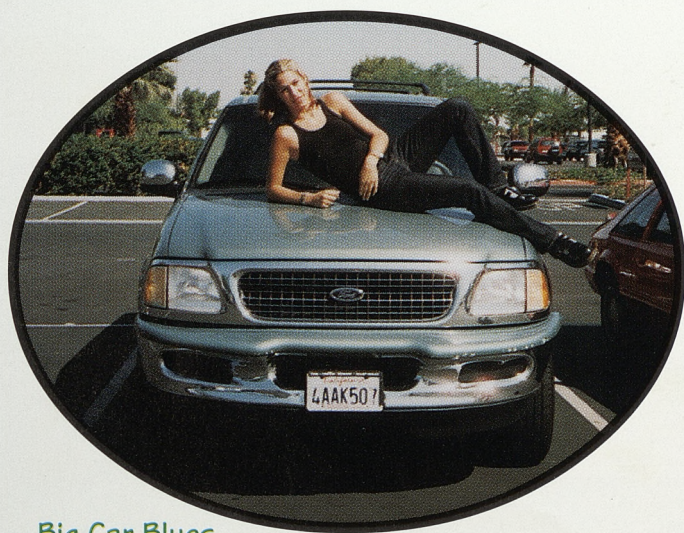

Spanking New

Surprised by her new-found tool for freedom is Tanya Orozco (12). She received a 2000 Honda Civic this year, the best birthday present of her life.

The Whole Enchilada

Clear corners, rims, exhaust, racing pedals, and a lowered body show that Morgan Salzer (12) really knows how to make her car look good.

Big Car Blues

Tired of high gas bills, Jenna Higuera (11) wants a small car of her own.

Boys and Their Toys

Confident and intimidating, Casey Woodfield (12) and Caleb Barton (12) act as though they are on top of the world in Casey's raised Chevy.

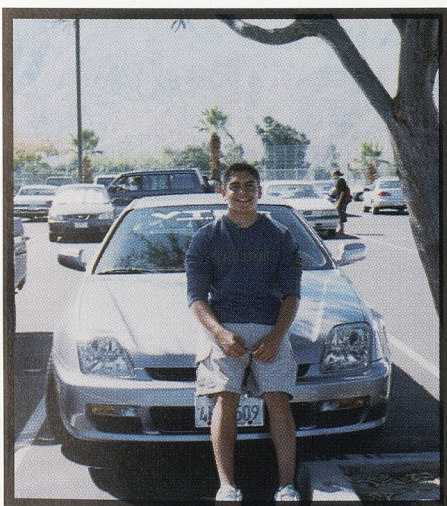

Red Hot Hot Hot!

Sizzling and strutting his stuff is Jon McCue (12). Jon definitely shows school spirit by driving a red Acura Integra.

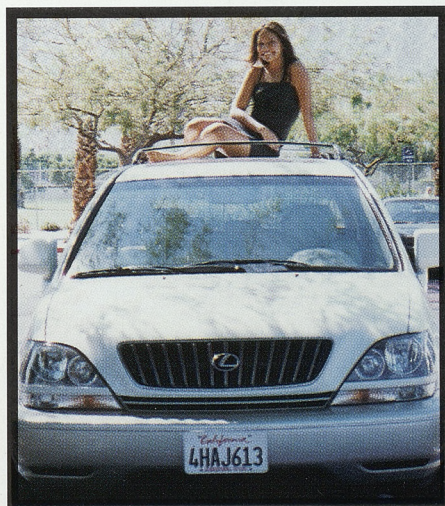

Beep, Beep--Who's Got the Keys to the Jeep?

Tantalizing Amber DaSilva (11) is Steve Trost (11), who has no intention of letting her drive his prized possession, a Jeep Laredo.

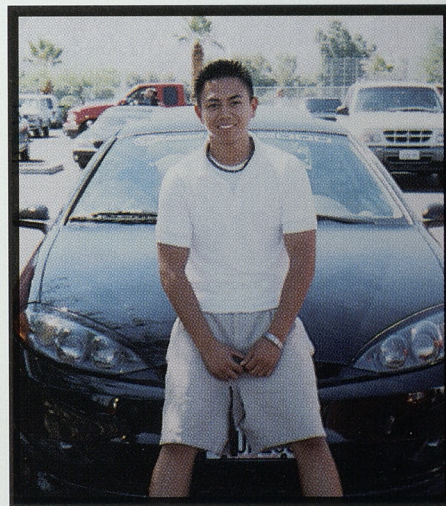

V-Tec Hi-Tec

Amazingly humble Ozzy Paz (12) reluctantly shows off his Honda Prelude.

Multi-Purpose Use

Lounging on the top of her luxury SUV Lexus RX is Maureen Chung (12).

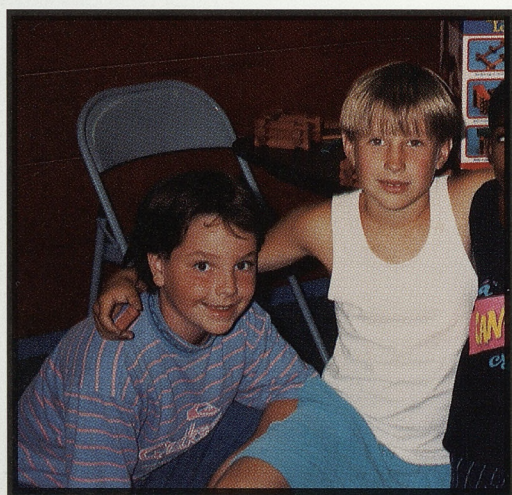

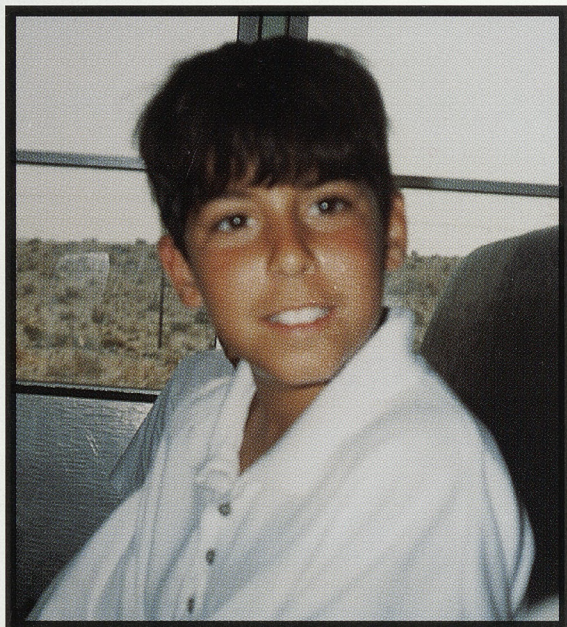

Driving in Style

Special senior Nestor Urita (12) drives a Special Edition 2000 Cougar. It is his car of choice.

then and WOW!

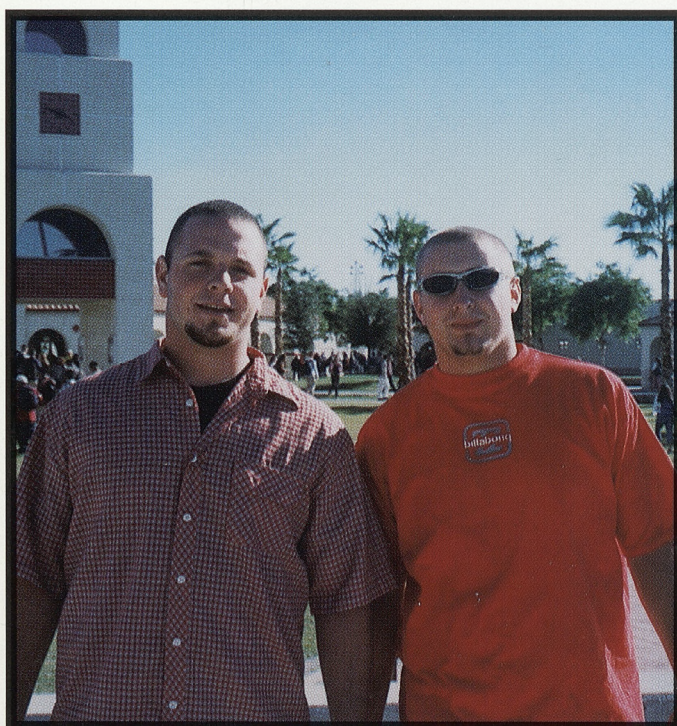

All That Bubbaness!

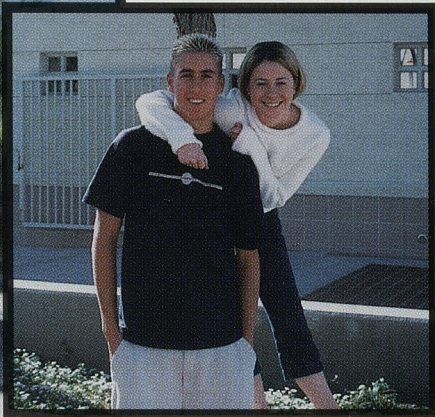

From big brown eyes and red apple cheeks to a confident man with a great sense of humor, Matt "Bubba" Halleck (12) has changed dramatically.

Muscle Men

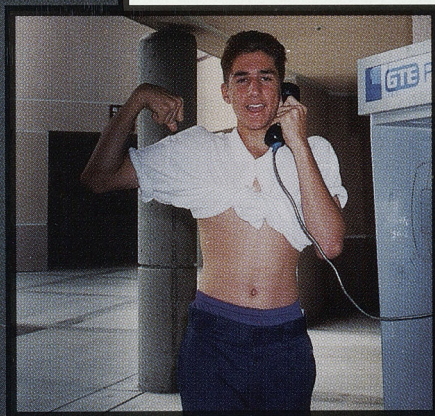

Sprouting up from small fries to big guys are Mike Meredith (12) and Justin Biggs (12). Throughout many years, their friendship has remained as strong as they are.

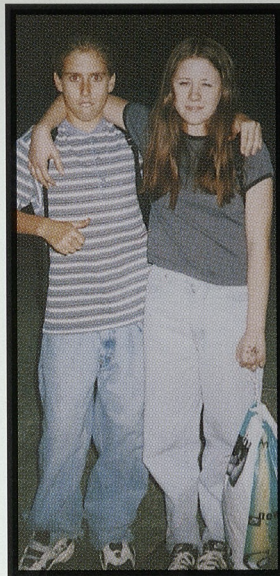

Never Grow Up

Still in Never-Never Land, Everett Figueroa (12) found himself transformed from a small talk tyke to a gigantic gossip guy. Never say "never."

Sugar and Spice

Sweet smiles and friendly hugs have made the friendship of Christina Fields (11) and Samantha Dorazio (11) happy and hopeful.

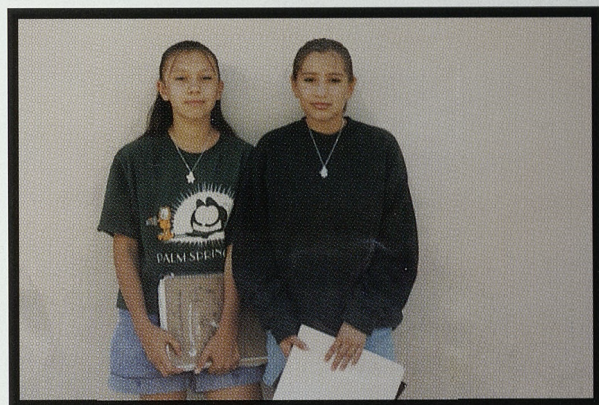

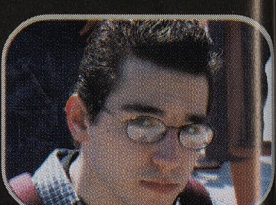

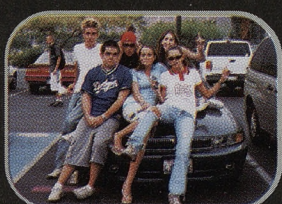

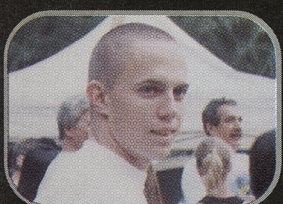

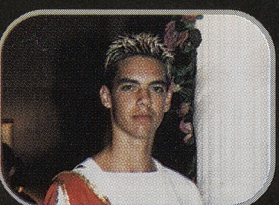

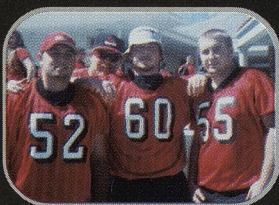

Lean on Me

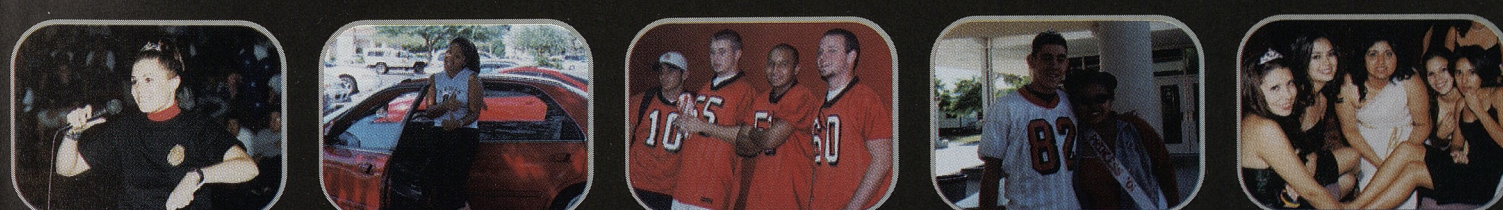

Best buds since they can remember are Athena Fritz (12) and John Murrell (12).

Stuck on You

Although time passed and tribulations tested them, the adhesive held, and the friendship of Christina Mendez (12) and Lorena Macias (12) lasted.

Best All Around

Ozzy Paz-Altschul & Maureen Chung

My Little Ossie Head-How can I ever forget my innocent little boy? Our memories will be in my head and in my heart forever. Remember our wrestling matches; our overnighters; or long talks; our first night on the lookout; our crazy parties; and our everlasting friendship. We've been through it all and we have had the ups-and-downs, but our bond has held us together. WE will always be connected, Oscar, no matter where the road takes us. I will forever be your one person. Never will I forget, I promise!
I love you forever,
Melissa

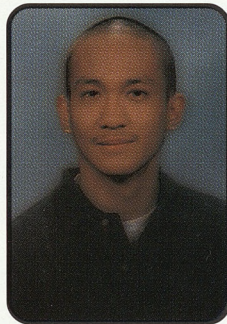

Mo-Reen,
We didn't start talking until sophomore year, and from there, it was all uphill. The three of us became the "Three Musketeers," totally inseparable. Can you believe we are finally seniors? Looking back on the days of California Pizza Kitchen, random eggings, and immature boys, we realize how many unforgettable memories we have, and how they are so meaningful to all of us. We love you dearly, and hope more meaningful memories are to come in the future.

My friend, regardless of what you think, of what our classmates think, how much money you have, how much money I have, how good of grades you get, how good of grades I get, whether you win or I lose, I will undoubtedly succeed to greater heights than you.
-Gene Davis III

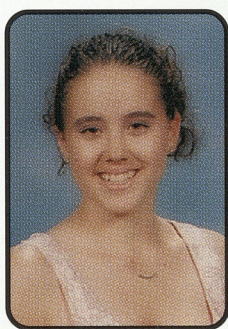

Hard-worker, intellectual, and confidante are three words describing the extraordinary person, Rebekah Williams. Looking back at our nutty history projects and studying for stressful tests, I don't know how I could have survived high school without a friend like her. Rebekah is an amazing person who will prevail and be successful in every thing she undertakes.
Good luck in the future, Rebekah.
-Amy

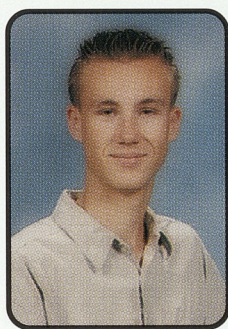

Bekah, I'll treasure all our memories, from Murphy's "Director's Assignments," serial numbers, to late night talks. I'll drop by in Illinois--when I'm in the neighborhood--so we can have some Starbucks.

Most Athletic

Steven Aviña & Holly Gardner

Steve (Fatboy Aviña), When we first met, playing football freshman year, we had that quarterback-receiver connection, and quickly became friends. You started coming over to my house and eating ALL the food. These 4 years, we have become closer and closer. It's safe to say that we have a brother-brother connection. There are times when we are inseparable (almost to the point where we can't stand each other) and get into fights; but like brothers, we get our shots in or have a wrestling match and are friends again the next day. Congratulations, you deserve to be "Most Athletic." It's been fun, "Joker!"

Your big brother, Nick Valdez

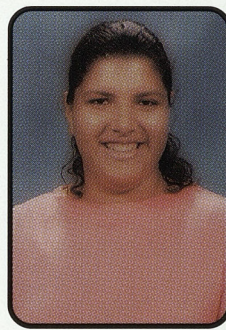

Holly, You are capable of anything. Homecoming Queen, "Most Athletic," top-ranking volleyball player--you have accomplished many things. You deserve them all. You have the combination of brains and brawn and have the ability to do whatever you want. I personally voted you for "Best Body," but "Most Athletic" is fine. I hope that you continue to do exceptional things with your life. Always supporting your efforts, Dan Wood

Best Personality

George Ramirez & Lauren Freeman

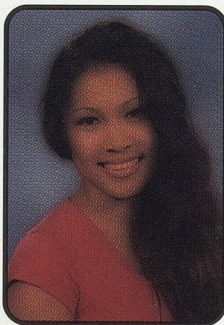

Georgie Porgie,
I'm sorry to say that "gold" is not your color, and VB makes you a little uneasy. (But there's a first time for everything.) Days of our lives is dead and gone, but our friendship has remained strong. From Ms. Binder's 6th grade shenanigans, to working on our senior float. You have always been a true friend and I'll miss you.
* LS * - Personality is your perfect label. Your complete confidence in yourself and others will make your future, because it's making your present. Since the moment I met you, you have shined like a star in my life.
Thank you deeply for your friendship, your encouragement, and your constant smile. You will always be my little slave boy.
I love you always,
Melissa

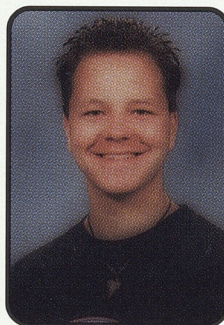

Lauren,
You shine like a star,
You know you'll go far,
We always see you smiling,
We know you're never crying,
Our hearts have been touched in so many ways,
Our memories live on with words
you say, Personality, character, and substance make you who you are.

James,
I'm so glad I met you this year.
It's not because you're nice, creative, or fun, but because you watch the coolest & best show in the world (you know which one). It's true. It's true. I hope you do well in that art school of yours, and maybe we'll meet up in the future and eat some pies...pecan pie, apple pie, blueberry pie...and what was that other pie? You better make something of yourself, or else I'm gonna have to lay the smackdown on your candyass!
(And don't think I can't just because I'm a girl).
-Vanessa Corpuz

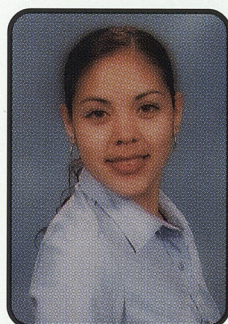

Bums,
Truly "destiny" manifested where
"honey roasted peanuts" brought us together. Nobody knows me better than you do--"You are the paper I write on," I mean really... "Knowing me, knowing you... ahhh" -- "ooh child"...
"On dah real doh" -- "Crem brulé can never be jello"... sorry... I know our friendship will last "far longer than forever"... In case it doesn't, there's always the "Return to sender scam," but I guess that's just the "facts of life." Anyway-- your sassy use of a glue gun and nail polish can make the unexpected a work of art.
Kudos to you,

One of a Kind Charles Sanders & Ruthie Cadenhead

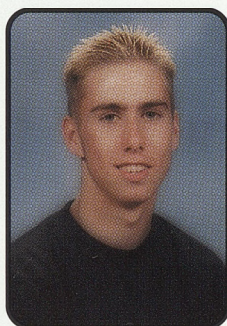

Dear Charles,
We've had our crazy times...the INN room is a sacred land - just kidding. I'm so glad that we've stayed close the past couple of years. You're truly the unforgettable type. Whether it's at a football game, out with friends, or just out skating... you're the highlight of the party. You'll always have a special place with me... I love you... Ash

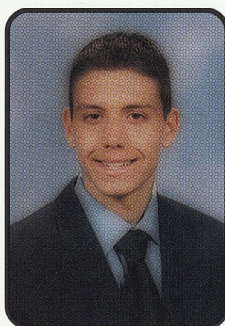

Ruth-dog! You have made the past four years pretty unforgettable. You are an amazing and wonderful person, and you deserve only the best! Now that we are going to be going our separate ways, I have no one to get me in trouble, but I just want to say thank you for our friendship and CRAZINESS. It has definitely brought the best out of me. Love, Erin Sklar

Air? Man, those were great times! And now it's all coming to a close... (and I promised myself I wouldn't cry). Now, promise me when you're sitting all alone in your apartment, when you're scarfing down pieces of "chocnut," and "when the night wind sings a lonesome lullaby," you won't forget that "it's all psychological, you just have to stay in a positive frame of mind." Alrighty then. Love, Bumsy P.S. You're the shiznit of a friend... blah, blah, blah... love ya like a boatload.

To my fashionable friend #10, Remember the macaroni and cheese, the pasta sauce always falling, baby talk, sliding across Joe's floor, the soccer games I never watched but always ate after, our daily kickball games in the fifth grade, the Bellagio, and always keeping me in line, on track, and out of fights. The times we've shared are unforgettable, and even though our paths are splitting, I will always treasure our friendship and the memories that we've shared. Dress for success. I love you and will miss you very much. Your friend always, Lindsay

Biggest Flirt

Lindsay Stein & Angelo Lavoragna

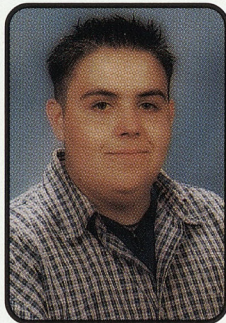

Lindsay (500),
Our friendship the past year has been a remarkable one and one I will cherish forever. You and your family give me so much strength and hope for the future. I will carry that in my heart throughout my life. These memories will always and forever stay with me
throughout the end of time (This much cleavage or that much cleavage!) We soon part and take on our own lives, remember that we will always be friends.
I love you! Thank you.

-Tanya

Angelo,
It seems like only yesterday
when we met in Copeland's class. We have grown so much since then, yet you were a flirt then and are still a flirt now. You always know how to cheer a girl up (especially this one), whether it be with a pick-up line or just simply your smile or your presence. Being a flirt is just a small part of who you are;
you're a great guy with a great personality. I only wish the best for you in the future. I want you to know I will always hold a special place for you in my heart.
Love always,

Best Body

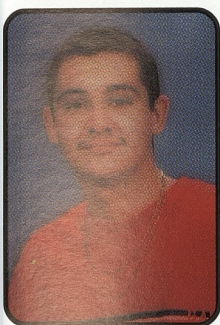

Nick Valdez, Casey Woodfield, & Karen Kalaw

Nick Valdez,
Well, brother, it started out just as me coming over to eat.
Look at us now--we are planning to go to college together. We were just brothers hanging out at your house, eating your food, but you helped me out when things went bad. You were the one who helped me when my family times were bad. It was your family who accepted me, even with my huge stomach. I liked the times when we would flex our muscles to see who was bigger; the only thing that I had bigger was my stomach.
The best part of our workout was the trap bar, and I picked it up and fell on the bed
because it was too heavy.
Nick, I would like to thank you for keeping me around, even though when you looked at me,
you wanted to hit me.
-Steve Avina

Wassabi K-Lo!!

and J-ROC's p-zarty, shhhhh!
Nagaraya gawlic flavo! Those are good, huh? We'll always be tighter than thong tha thongel!
Love you grell! And no matter what, we'll remain like this until we get old like wrinklysap. Will you love me, foe ever kawen?
Check yes, no? "J" okey . .
Always be your fwen and we be just be alive

Taken from Misha's School Writing Journal:
 "If there were 100 people my age, I think not one would have a more satisfying life because I have all the people that I love in my life and I'm thankful for what I have!"

~In Loving Memory~

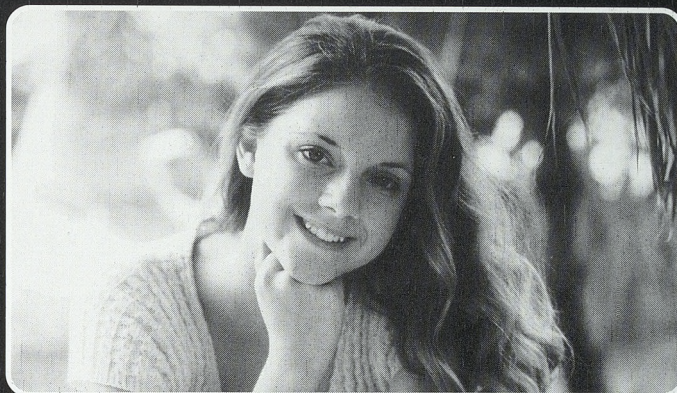

Misha Michelle Bishop

February 25, 1984 - August 10, 2000

For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.
 Psalm 91 Verse 11

Misha was a beautiful example of love and friendship. She had many friends and acquaintances whose lives she had a good influence on. The memories we shared with her will have an everlasting effect on our hearts.

We miss you...
 Holly Gardner

Misha, what can I say...we all miss you. It's so hard to believe that you are gone...that you won't be the final leg in a race...or the player we pass the ball to. All I can hope is that we will learn from your tragic mistake, and decide not to drink. You were a good friend, a great water polo player, and an excellent swimmer...RIP.
 Your friend,
 Ashley Nickles

Dear Misha,
 You honored our lives with your gifts of unconditional love, infectious laughter, gentle smile, kind heart, and beautiful spirit. Our precious daughter, we are blessed for having shared life with you. We miss you more than words can say...

Love,
 Momma and your Dad, Kelly

Losing a best friend for so many years is like losing a whole part of you. Secretly, you love that person more than anyone else, and when that wonderful best friend is gone, you are so empty. That's how I feel. I love you, Misha Michelle Bishop, always and forever. I miss my best friend.
 ~Jaylynn Arman

Misha,
 There's no perfect way to say good-bye. I will always remember our sleepovers, birthday parties, soccer games, and, most of all, peanut butter and jelly sandwiches. Your smile will stay in a special place within me forever. Although you're gone, in a way you're still here swimming in the beautiful sea.
 ~Lorena Macias

There is not a single word or feeling about Misha that would describe her as a whole...always having a smile no matter how her day was going, or always willing to lend an ear, or in some cases, an extra bathing suit. Out of the 2 years that I was lucky enough to swim with Misha, I never heard her raise her voice in anger, let alone be mad about something. Her death is a great loss to the swim and water polo teams. The sweet memory of Misha Bishop will be with me for the rest of my life. I just hope that her passing will open people's eyes to the dangers of alcohol. Misha, may you rest in peace for eternity. Love always, Danielle Burgess Misha was a very friendly and nice girl who made the fatal mistake to drink. Hopefully, she will not be remembered for that, but for the great person she was. She was a great swimmer, water polo player, and student. She was a very smart girl who was headed toward a great future. I am hopeful that people will learn from her mistake, and decide not to drink. We will always love and remember Misha in our hearts and minds.

ASB Leadership

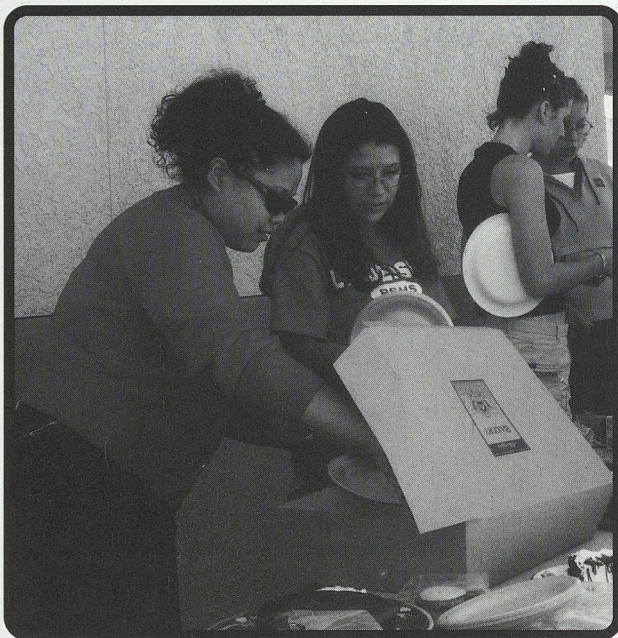

Poster Boy

Creativity, diligence, and responsibility are qualities that Steven Aviña (12), the hardest-working member of ASB, demonstrates.

They Work Hard for Their Money

Selling baked goodies to raise money for ASB at the all-club bakesale are Karla Acuña (12), Laura Torres (12), and Hollie Curtis (11).

What's Wrong with This Picture?

Struttin' the stylish junior class shirts are all of the junior class members of ASB, and the biggest traitor of all, Jorge Ramirez (12).

S.O.S.

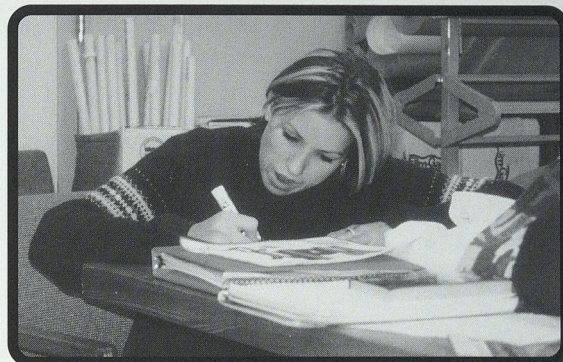

(Bottom Center): Despite the large demand for Homecoming tickets, Maureen Chung (12) and Eric Davilla (12) need no help to meet the students' needs.

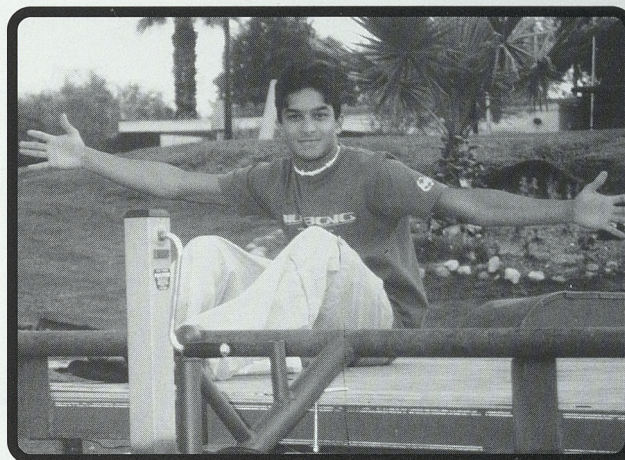

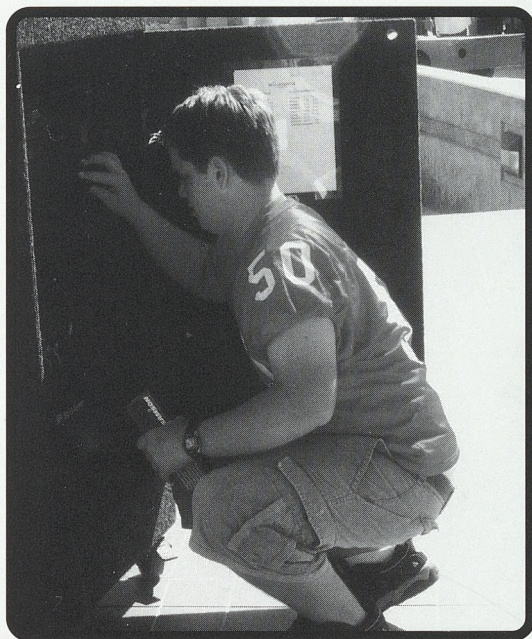

'02 is Better than '01

Pumping up the the junior crowd during an assembly are Crystal Erlendson (11) and Erika Abrille (11).

"Director's Assignments"

Working hard on "Murph-Dog's" assignments is Kelly Teel (9).

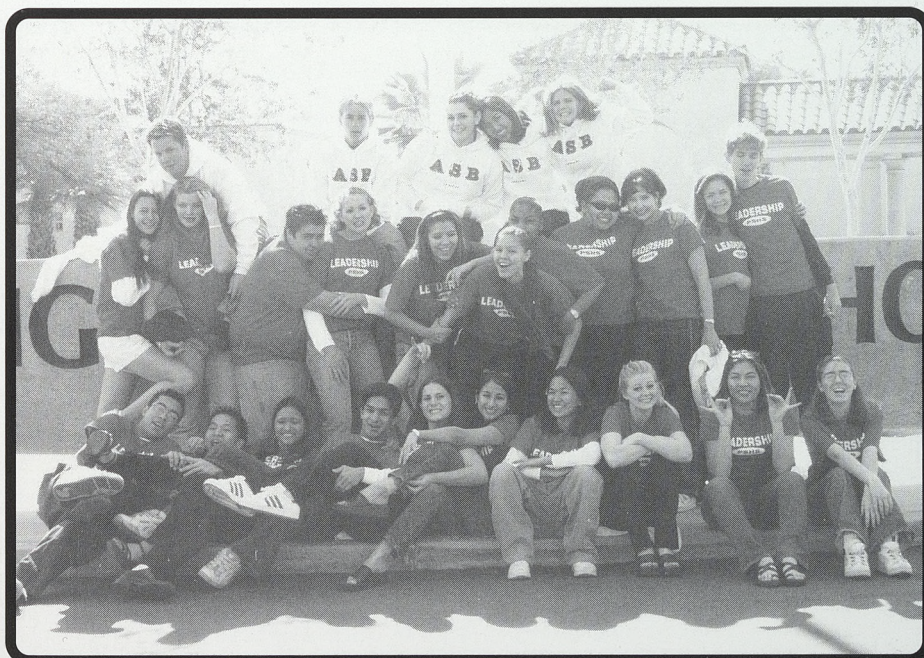

With Arms Wide Open

Welcoming his fellow seniors at the Homecoming float building is Adam Ahmed (12).

Audio-tistic

Pretty in Pink

Gracefully cropping her picture is cropping princess Corrin...ummm, I mean Tiffany. . yeah, Tiffany Caranci (10).

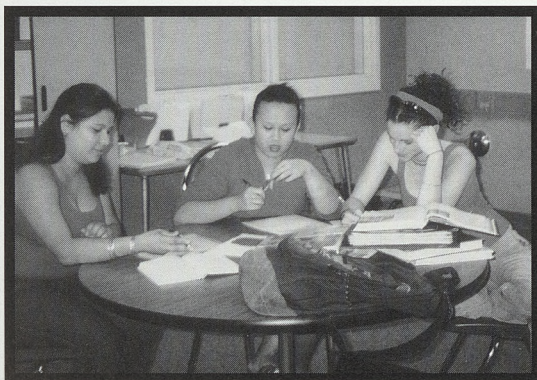

Best Friends

Indulging in their typical yearbook behavior of gossiping are Katie Murphy (10) and Alisha Caldwell (11).

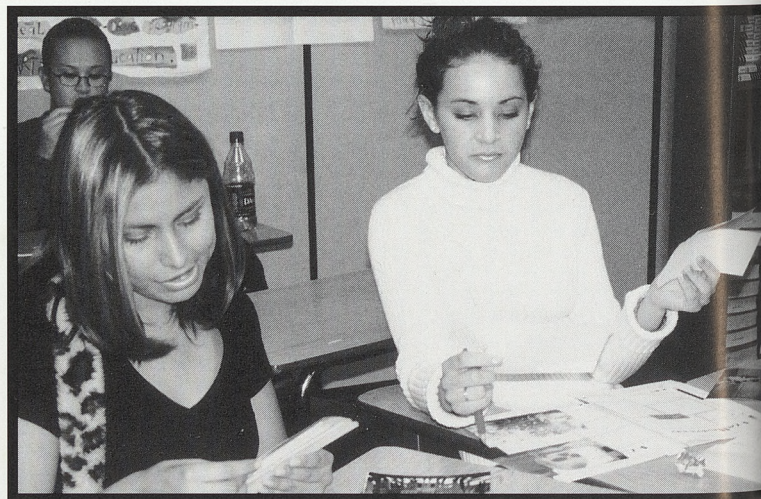

Breezin' It

Cheerfully doing his duty as "resident photographer," Enrique Solís (12), breaks to talk to gal pals Crystal Erlendson (11) and Deah Abaya (11) during halftime at the boys' soccer game.

Scarlet Fever

Hard at work are women-in-red Ileana Rivera (12), Vanessa Corpuz (12), and Lindsay Salk (12).

Deadlines, Shmedlines

Senior Moment

Happy to be hanging out together in yearbook production are staffmembers Lindsay Stein, Melissa Martinez, Lorena Macias, and Amber Robbins-Strebe.

Data Entry

Struggling to update the index are rookie staffmembers Adrienne Kinsey (10) and Cristina Ramos (10).

ch-ch-ch-CHIA!

Picture Perfect

Mixmaster

Putting it all together, yearbook veteran Karen Kalaw (12) sticks with the collage.

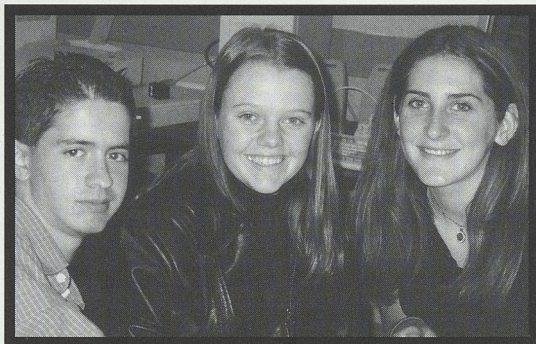

Computer Work

Seeking a future job in electronics, Hayden Mills (10), shows off his technical skills.

Maxin' and Relaxing

Before taking on the task of writing articles, Dan Hoffmann (10), Michelle Nance (11), and Jana FitzGerald (10) find the time to take a breather.

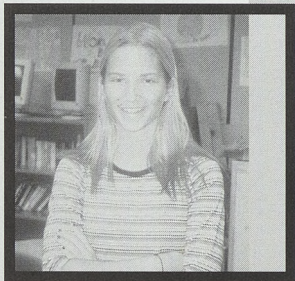

READ ALL ABOUT IT

-Ms. Jana Spencer
Smoke Signals
Advisor

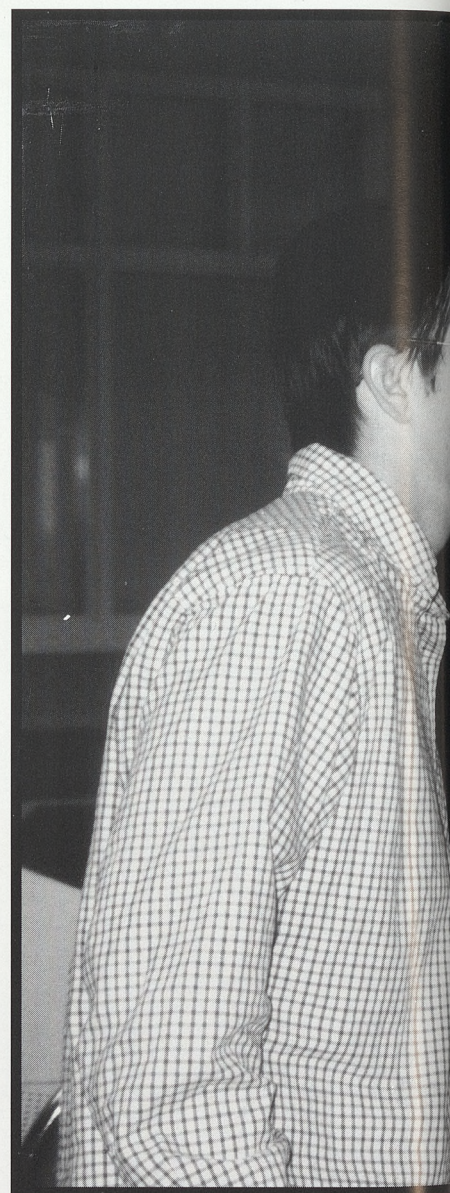

"To be a good journalist, you must be an individual who writes with facts, intellect, and an unbiased perspective of current events."

-Jessica Wilcox
Editor-in-Chief

"Most people will never fully understand the dedication and enjoyment there is in producing a newspaper. In fact, I'm not sure I understand it myself: hours of work, writer's block, computer complications, and printing--all so that I can see people throw it on the ground.

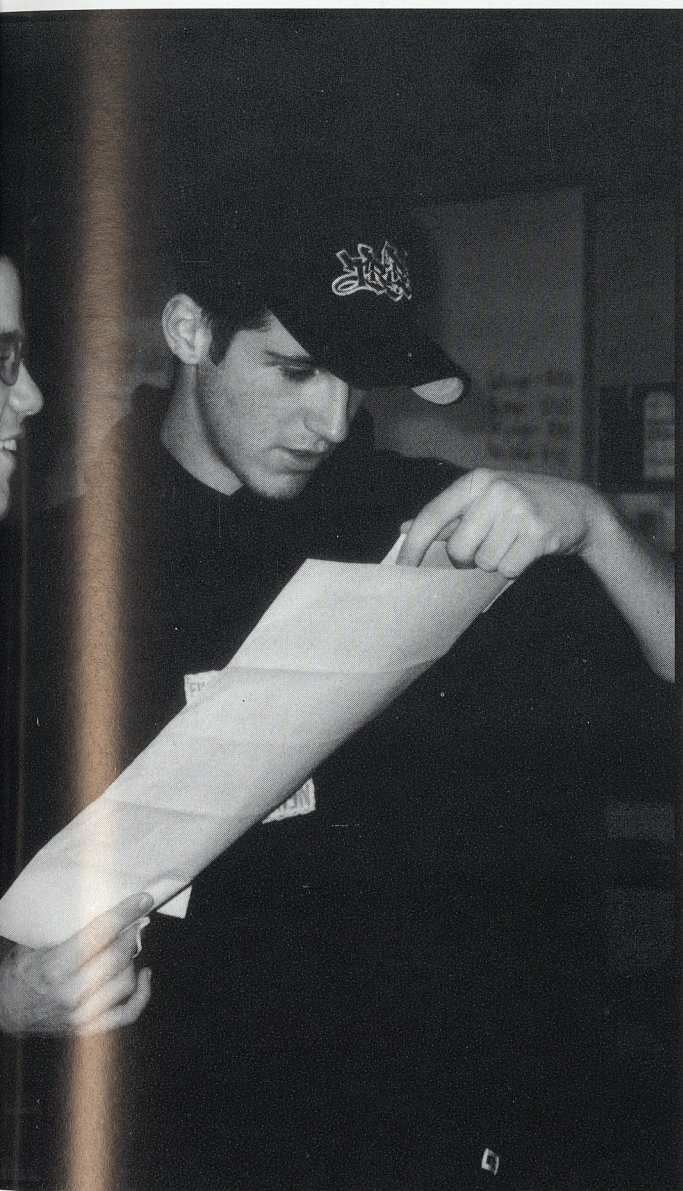

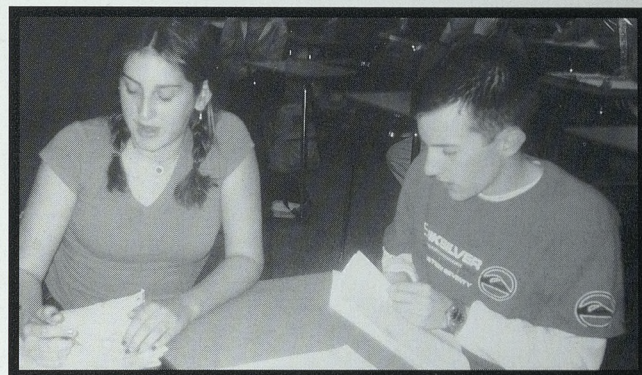

This year has been a bit more complex for me, mainly because of the frustration of people not turning in articles and missing deadlines. However, I'd like to think that I've gained....something from my classmates. Thank you for an interesting year."

The IN-CROWD

Ms. Jana Spencer, Hayden Mills (10), Jose Figueroa (10), Michelle Nance (11), Dan Wood (12), Adam Gaines (12), Holly Gardner (12), Holly Autrey (12), Brian Day (10), Jessica Wilcox (11), Jana FitzGerald (10), Dan Hoffmann (10), Fabio Periera (10), Jolie Petkov(9), and Chelsea Pabst (12).

This and That

Sharing commentary about the last issue of Smoke Signals are Dan Wood (12), and Adam Gaines (12).

"It is in my expert opinion that INN is supercalifragilistic-expialodocious!!"

~ Charles Sanders (12)

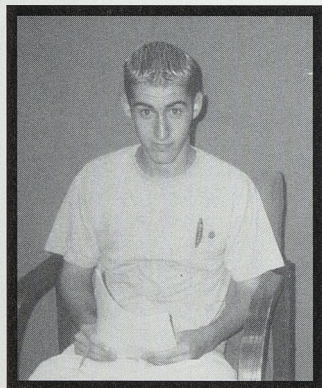

INN's All About News

"Nothing will ever beat our trip to Universal Studios in 2000. Whoop, whoop!! (Inside jokes: Steve, stay away from OJ and Backdraft!! Ashley, be nice to the nice workers of the Hard Rock Cafe ... I love you ... hee hee hee. Perry, lighten up; life isn't that bad!!) All kidding aside, Mr. Kroetz, you have really been an inspiration in my life, and I love you, man! We work hard, we play hard ... we are hard. Punk rock, peace out, and keep it real."

~Rachael Logan, a four-year veteran of the Indian News Network, is planning to enter into a career in video production next year.

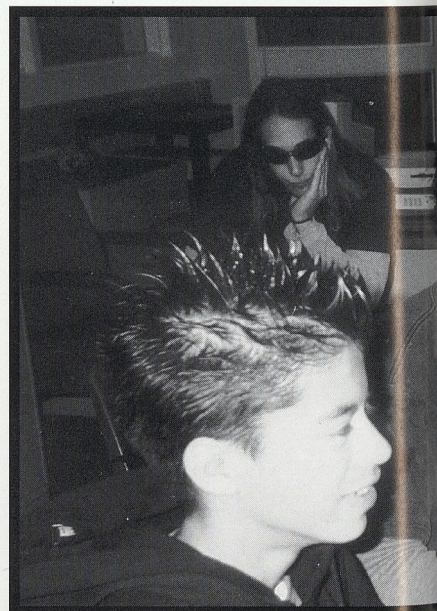

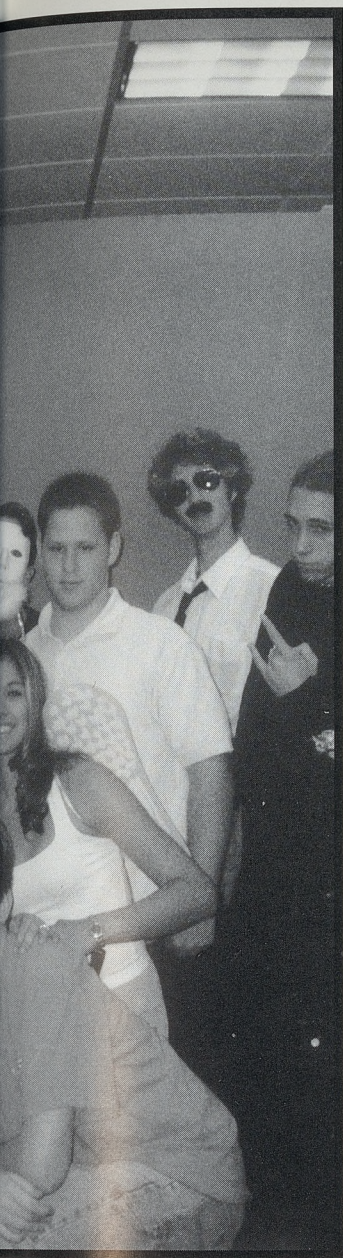

"I like to work with video productions because it gives me the chance to alter reality to fit my own insanity."

~Rick Derflinger, a two-year veteran of INN, is the man everyone runs to when there is a problem with the equipment (since he is knowledgeable about every piece of equipment in the studio-classroom).

Goof Troop

Ladies and gentleman, INN Crew '00-'01: Luis "Noel" Lara (10), Patrick "Beavis" Scanlan (10), Perry "Boxer" Keith (11), Ricky "Perfection" Derflinger (11), Ashley "Ash-Dogg" Nickles (12), Steve-O Valek (11), Tiff "Turbo" Ramoran (12), Rachel Pinkis (12), Kroetz, the hockey fanatic, Cathy "Devil" Martikke (12), Kristina "Angel" Fields (11), Justin "125" Dow (11), Adam Solowitz (11), Charles "Mix Master Mike" Sanders (12), Justin "Throwdown" Petrilla (12), Hilsia Aleman (12), Rachael "Punk Rock" Logan (12), and Luke "I'm your father" Walwick (10).

Anchors Away

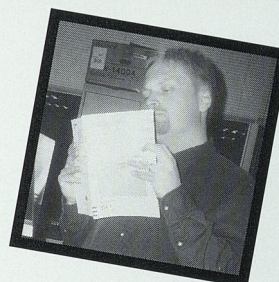

"Good morning Palm Springs High School. Today is the first day of the rest of your lives..." Stealing the spotlight once again are Tiffany Ramoran (12) and Ashley Nickles (12). Ashley would just like to say, "To C.S. & R.L.: I love you guys with all my heart."

Stud Muffins

(Below): Preparing to make his directing debut is Steve Valek (11), and getting ready to roll is Charles Sanders (12). These two clowns have made for some pretty interesting shows.

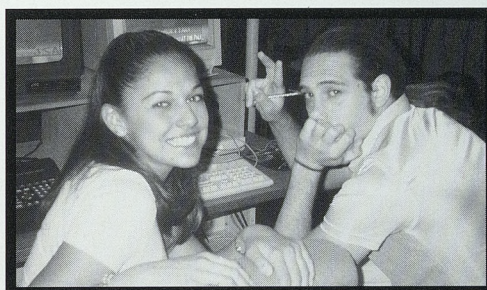

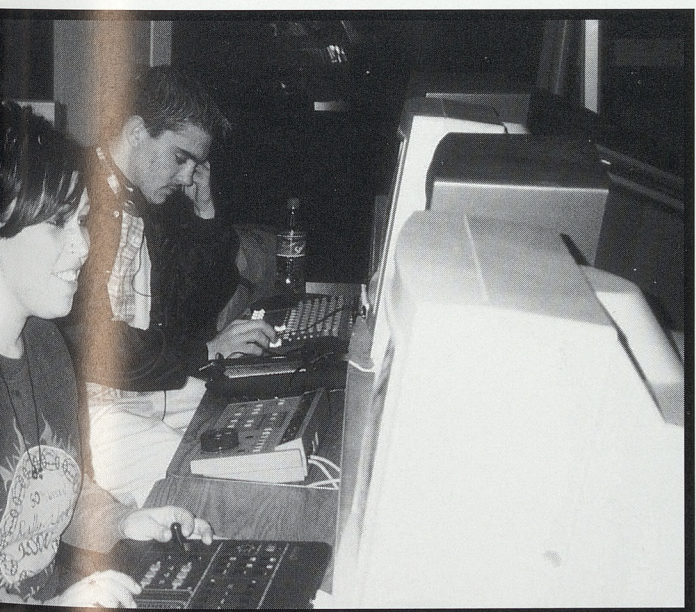

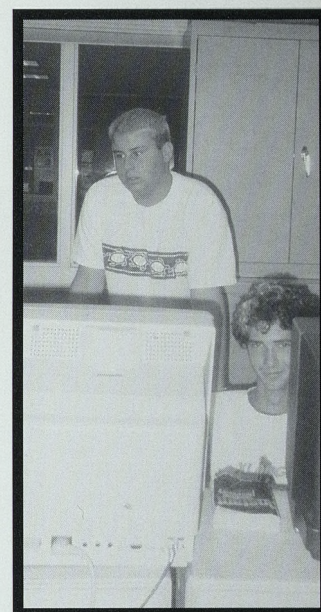

Five Reasons To Be On The Crew

1. Learn a lot about news broadcasting
2. The annual trip to a theme park
3. The orange juice
4. Working with Mr. Kroetz, the coolest teacher around
5. Winchell's is right across the street

Inspector Gadget

Trying to figure out how to turn off the display on the new equipment is INN producer, Mr. Ron Kroetz. Mr. "K" enjoys long walks on the beach, donuts, and hockey. Best of all, Charles thinks he is "bomb-diggity."

Peace Out

(Above): Thoroughly enjoying the "behind-the-scenes" aspect of INN are Kristina Fields (11), and Justin Petrilla (12).

Freaks and Geeks

(Left): Going through the daily routine of readying the show are Noel Lara (10), Rachael Logan (12), Perry Keith (11), and Justin Petrilla (12).

Sound Off

Being one of the top students in the class, knowing all the equipment upside down and inside out, is Perry Keith (11). Perry has been involved with video and newsbroadcast productions since his freshman year.

these students are

CAREER READY

Saying Good- Bye

Mr. McEneaney was a terrific teacher who served our school for the past thirty-two years. He taught his students how to do brake jobs, tune-ups, tire rotations, clutch jobs, preventative maintenance, and safety checks. "Mac" will be greatly missed.

Handy Man

Checking the carburetor of his Nissan like a true mechanic is Daniel Berlinger (12).

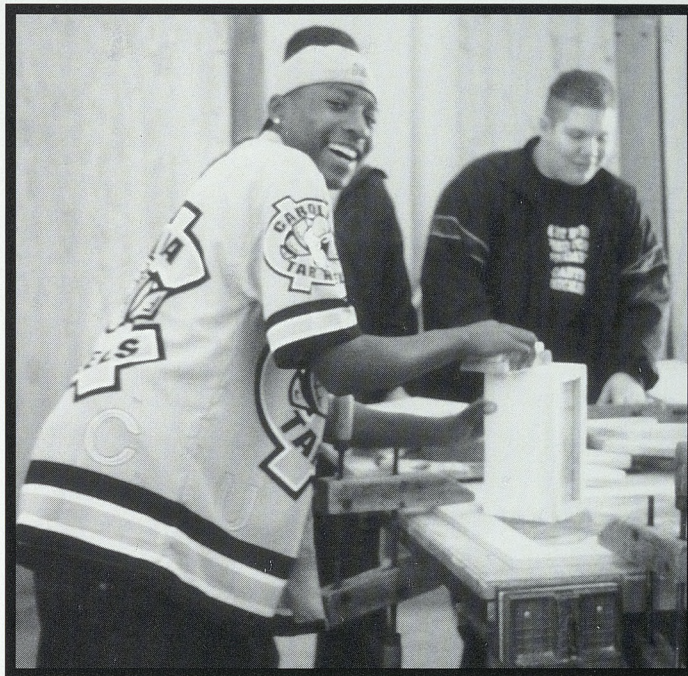

Men & Cars Make Sense

A wrench and a car are all Everett Figueroa (12), Charlie Kieley (12), Luis Gonzales (12), and Andrew Burris (12) need to succeed in auto shop.

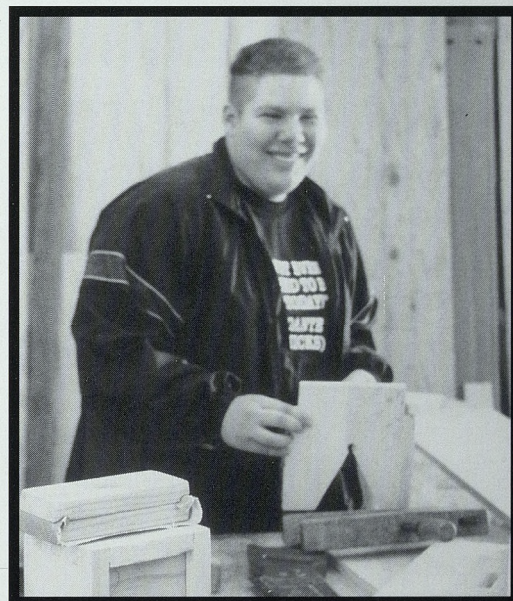

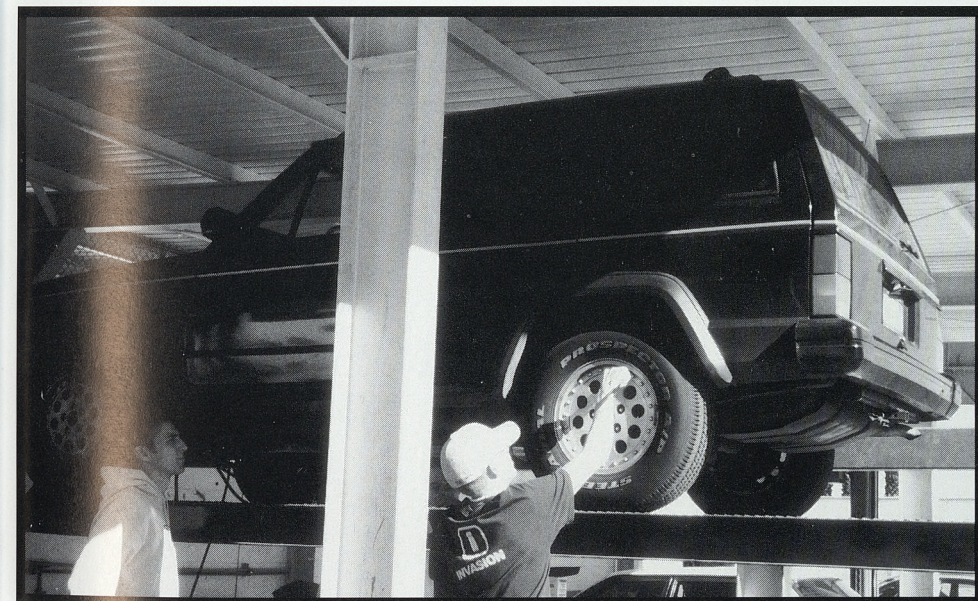

Enter Sandman

Carefully sanding away at his wood box is Karim Davis (12).

Tool Man

I SAW you and you SAW me. Andy Midkiff (11) shows off his power tools.

Tire Problems

Gauging the air pressure of his Jeep Cherokee means Charlie Kieley (12) won't get stuck stranded on the side of the road.

Wood Man

Chopping away to make a masterpiece is Jimmy Grover (9).

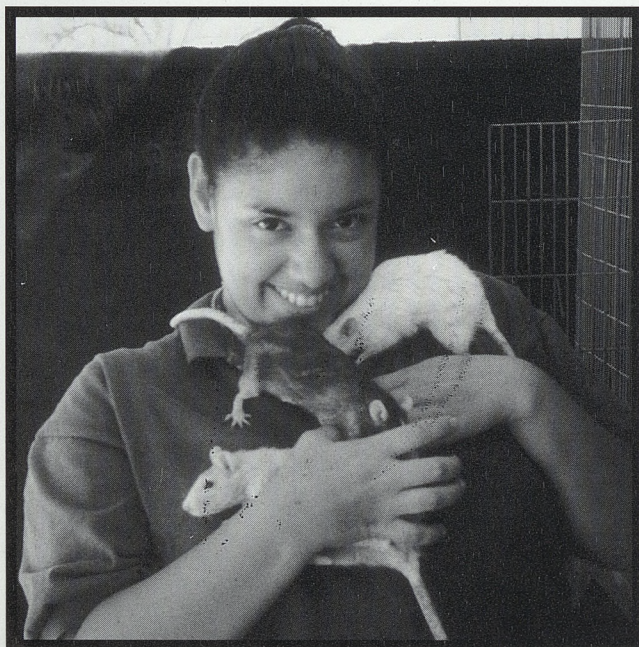

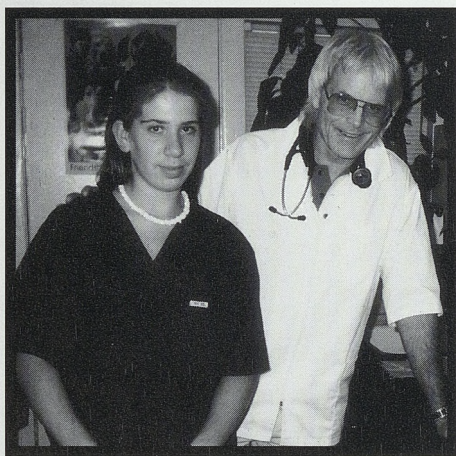

Back from the Dead

Looming over the dark side, Tera Bell (12), Alex Kennedy (12), and Sara Lien (12) contemplate a career in mortuary science on Career Day.

Dr. Dolittle

Learning how to become a veterinarian at Desert Animal Hospital is Tonia Brauner (9), with her instructor, Dr. Burbank.

Animal Friendly

Showing her love and appreciation for animals is Vivian Zamora (12), who interns at the Living Desert.

It's a Boy

Interning in the maternity ward at the Desert Regional Medical Center is Brittany Hilliker-Smith (10).

learning how to spend, save, and manage their bank accounts, these students have

What was your most memorable moment on stage?

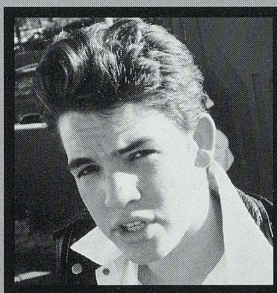

"My favorite memory of being on stage in high school is playing an ensemble member in Oliver, because I had fun--even though it was a musical."

~ Tera Bell
(Theater Co. VP)

"My most memorable moment on stage was the first night of Oliver. Being the first person on stage and looking out into a dark audience is probably the hardest thing to do."

~Leslie Hatfield

"Performing in plays and improving with the seniors (my freshman year) not only taught me, but left me with a plethora of happy memories."

~ Luke Robertson
(Theater Co. President)

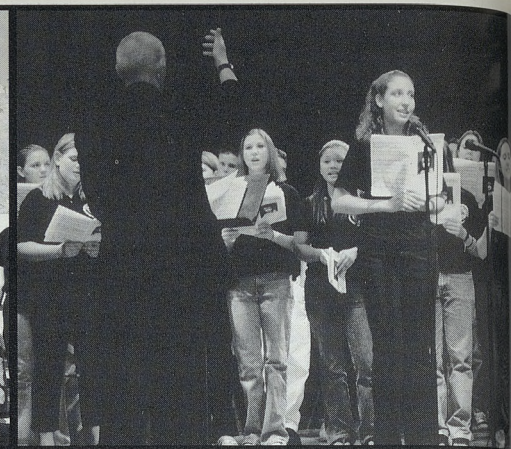

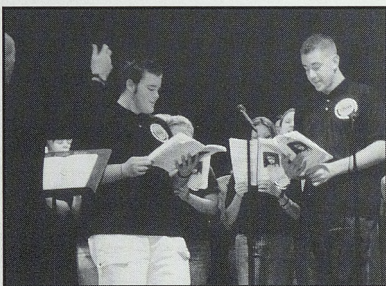

"My most memorable moment was when I played Lee in True West. I accidentally grabbed a broken bottle and I cut myself, then I started bleeding all over the stage."

Singing their hearts out during rehearsal are Yvonna Cazares (11), Jin Kim (9), and Sun Kim (9).

Being a MADRIGAL means...

"...getting to perform all over the valley (and missing class isn't bad either)."

~Wes Davis (12)

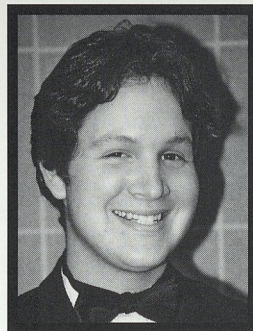

"...belonging to something that is close to home. We eat, sleep, and breathe our music--only by choice, and that's dedication."

~Amber DaSilva (11)

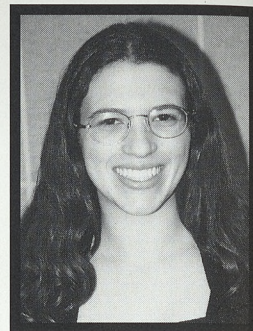

"...leaving lasting footprints in our hearts and souls that build our talents, self-esteem and unity."

~Rachel Donner (12)

"...being part of a group with the skills needed to sing and revive classical music and make it come alive."

~Seth Ettinger (12)

"... singing a song that we have just been introduced to and sounding good after just a few days of learning it."

~ Erin Graham (12)

"...being an individual, but at the same time blending in with the group to make one music and one song."

~Karen Kalaw (12)

"...possessing a passion for singing. I have waited to be a part of the group and now that I am, I wouldn't give it up for anything."

~Noelle La Fleur (11)

"... shining, and expressing your emotions. You are awesome when you're in Madrigals, but you are more awesome when Madrigals is in you."

~Leslie Mathews (12)

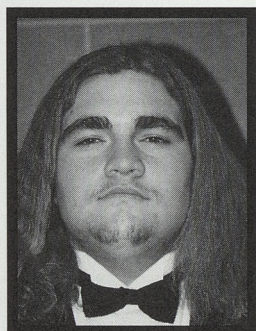

"...working together and spending time with my friends in Mads. I love them all and hope to continue our friendships after high school."

~Sara Pitts (11)

"...respect, responsibility, and hard work so we can open people's heart to the wonderful world of music. Music is the healing power of our souls."

~Mandy Reed (12)

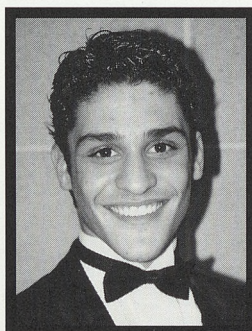

"...just being part of the group."

~Aaron Rice (12)

"...being a part of a group who are passionate about a common interest--and that is making music."

~Shalini Varghese (12)

"...closeness. Madrigals is a huge part of my life."

~Jack Virga (11)

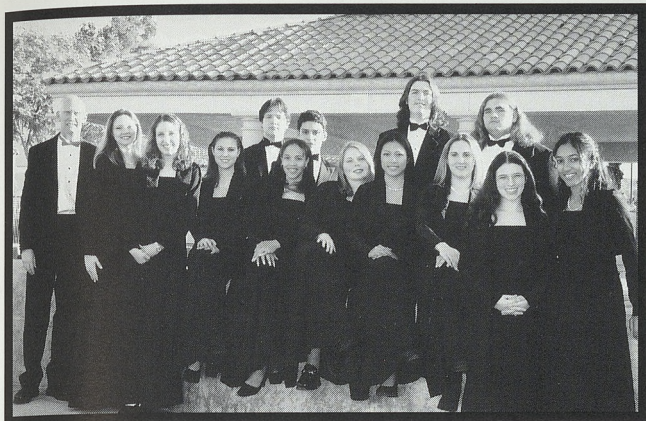

"... wanting to sing so badly, that you would do anything."

~Darian Martus

WHAT DOES FOOTBALL MEAN TO YOU?

"Football to me means waking up at five-thirty in the morning in August for two-a-days, violently colliding with other sweat-covered, hormone-crazed teenagers who would honestly much rather watch the girl jogging around the track, and most importantly proving to everyone else in the valley that Palm Springs is #1!"

-Jon McCue (12)

The Big Shots

Introducing the Lady Indians Water Polo Team.....

ALL as'01

What has made this year so special for you?

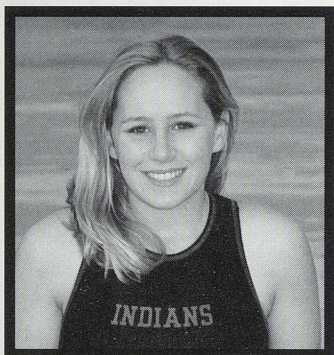

I-I-I-N-D ... I-I-I-N-D...

I could not have had a better year with a better team. As this year's Team Captain, I knew all along we could do it. I am so very proud of each and every one of you.

Best of luck next year.

Love always,

Burgess #8

I-I-I-A-N-S ... I-I-I-A-N-S...

Thank you all so much for showing me what true teamwork and sportsmanship really mean. We had a lot of fun, whether it was our great, eh-hem, discussions, or pouring cup-o'-noodles on ourselves in the shower. I love all of you guys very much. To Burgess and Erica - best of luck next year... LLYLAS-KIT... Love, Ashley #9

To Misha - RIP ... we miss you...

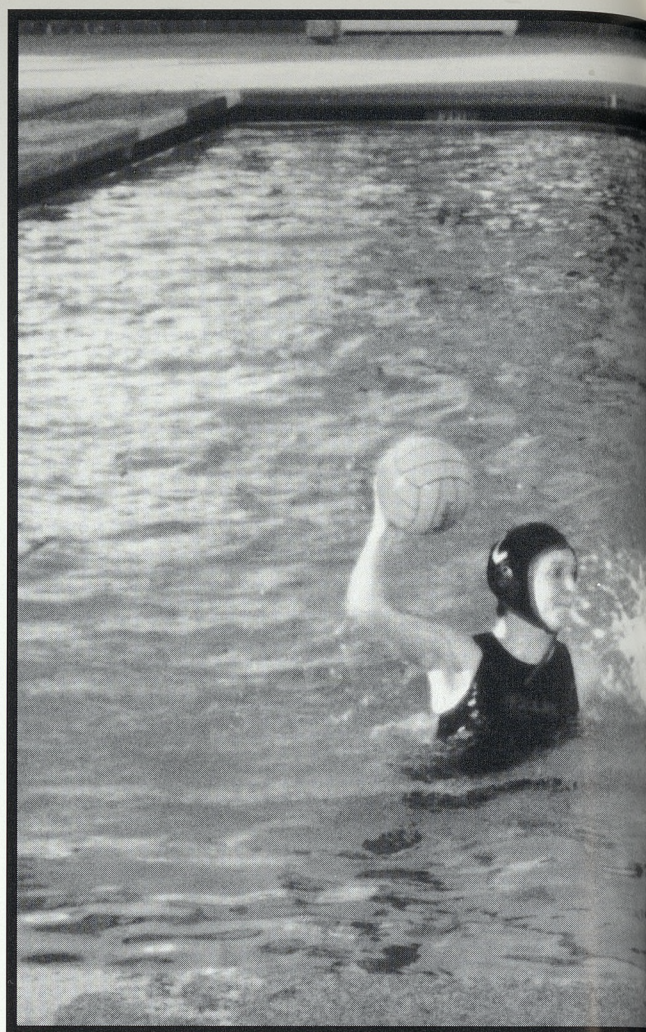

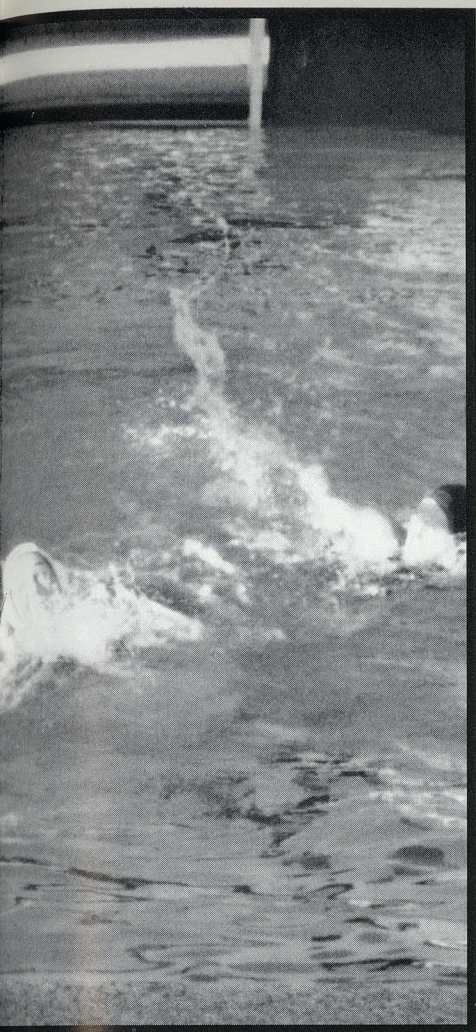

Gooooo Indians

The team means so much to me. All the girls have become so close. I hope our friendships last. Good luck next year and keep your heads up.

Love, Ericona

Heads Up

"This year, the soccer team had several setbacks. Who can ever forget the day the only two seniors on the varsity team were suspended from the 1st round of DVL after facing our school rivals, Cathedral City? The team showed that they will even fight for one another. Morgan Salzer came to my aid in true team fashion and faced not only suspension from soccer, but from school as well. There is nothing this team won't do for one another, and that is why we are and always will be number one."

Maya Club

As Long as We Are TOGETHER

What did you realize from being a member of the Asian Club?

"Being a member of the Asian Club made me realize that not only could Asians join, and be considered part of the family, but everyone who joins is also welcome. We all work together like one big family."

~Sheena Cabacungan (12)
(Asian Club President)

What is the purpose of the Maya Club?

"Our purpose is to have our voices heard in the community, and to learn about our culture and heritage. Most importantly, our purpose is to achieve higher goals for ourselves."

~Ariadna Jimenez (12)
(Maya Club President)

...the life and death of a campus club

Creating and maintaining a club on a high school campus is one of the most difficult and time-consuming activities in which one may engage. Dedication, effort, and tenacity are all essential to making a club successful; but one person or a small group of people cannot do it by themselves. The same dedication and effort must come from the members as well as the board. The unfortunate reality is that most campus clubs do not make it past the beginning stages, and the ones that do must maintain the same irrepressible energy they started with, in order to keep the ball rolling.

Top Five Clubs That SHOULD Be at PSHS:

1. Alien Abduction Support Group (President, Ashley Nickles)
2. Party Pariahs (President, Lindsay Salk)
3. Shopaholics Anonymous (President, Jenna Higuera)
4. Wu Tang Fan Club (President, Vanessa Corpuz)
5. Cheaters Anonymous (President, Branden Shoemaker)

A Dream Deferred

This year was a trying one for the Junior State of America Club. Activity and membership dwindled in comparison to previous years. But the few proud and dedicated members have been resilient.

Still Hopeful

"We still have the highest hopes that (with or without A World of Difference) students will pull together to battle injustice and hatred." ---Danielle Cohen-Bautista, co-advisor, with chapter founder and co-advisor, Vera Johnson-White

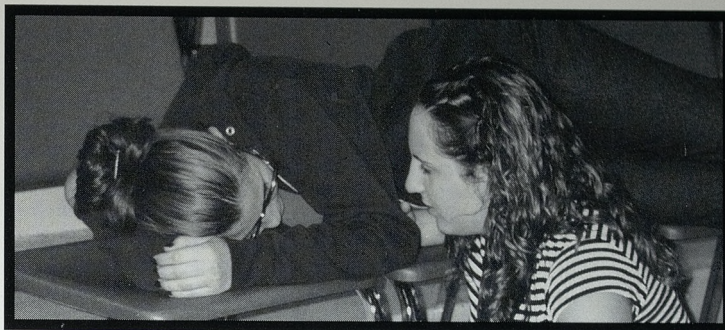

Not Sad

Future difference-makers Blaze Cohen Bautista and Alexis Janae White show that a little love goes a long way.

Shut Eyes, Shut Out

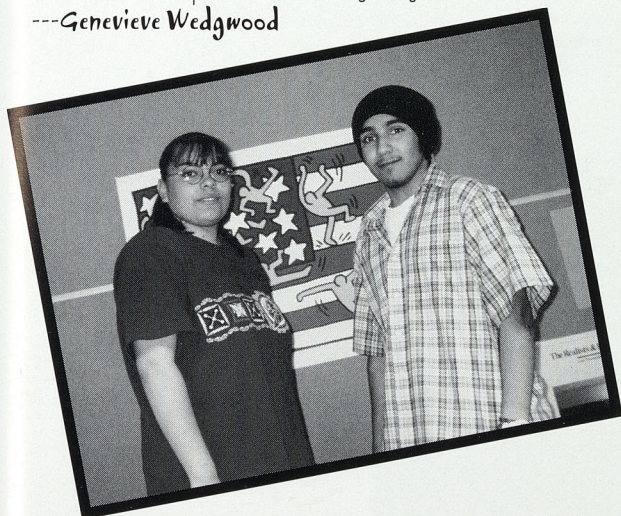

Maybe the lack of enthusiasm exists because of burn-out, boredom, or sheer exhaustion. At right, Rachel Donner and Leslie Matthews take a nap between classes.

The Right Fight

"There is a need for a Gay-Straight Student Alliance because there are a lot of gay students and friends of gay students who want and need support. It's an issue that's part of our society and needs to be dealt with, because tolerance is important to everybody."

---Genevieve Wedgwood

A World of Indifference

"A World of Difference club was to be a model organization on campus, for the betterment of relations between the colors. (I don't say races, because we are all one race: the human one.) I'm just disappointed that not everybody showed up to every meeting (including myself). Better luck next year. Peace." ---Enrique Solís

The S.A.D. Truth

"We wanted a lot of people to show that they cared about putting an end to racism and prejudice; but, unfortunately, people weren't as committed as we'd hoped." ---Maira Guiltton

Turning a Blind Eye

The life and death of a campus club is very much like the life and death of millions of animals each year...paid no heed, ignored, and shown indifference. Rachael (Logan) and I wanted to educate PSHS about the cruelties to which innocent animals are subjected each and every day--yet nobody cared. We find it important that people know what they are really eating when they bite into a hamburger (the "Big McNasty"). Yet no one wants to know. I would be willing to bet that a vast majority of people don't know the torture that animals are daily put through so that people may wear their designer shoes; just about no one knows what hot dogs are really made of (believe me, once you find out, you'll wish you hadn't); yet students turn a blind eye and obviously aren't willing to stand-up for the basic, humane rights of defenseless animals.

---Ashley Nickles

President and co-Founder of YHTA

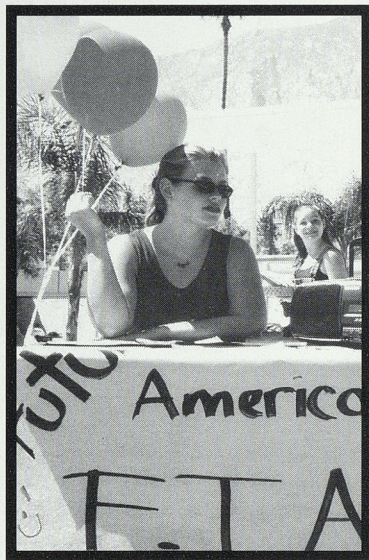

The demise of so many clubs on campus is a manifestation of the "sad" state of our culture. There is no dedication to cause, no reaction to wrong. Remember, though, the Student Apathy Disorder is not incurable. It will take time and effort, action and involvement, but students can make a difference.

---Lindsay Salk

Top 5 Reasons Why You're My Best Friend

5 You have clothes I like to borrow.

4 We both like to make fun of other people.

3 You'd tell me if I had toilet paper stuck to my shoe...

wouldn't you?

2 I have a reason to use those "buy one get one free" coupons. And the #1 reason you're my best friend ... you deserve the best.

Laura,

Thank you for being my confidante, my partner in crime, and my best friend. I 'specially thank you for putting up with me all these years.

Love you lots,

Heanna

P.S. We'll always have "THE" weekend in Jan. 2000

Congratulations

Liz Emmons

May your life be as blessed as you've made all of ours.

MESSAGE FROM THE PSHS ALUMNI

Congratulations, Seniors! You are now automatically members of the Palm Springs High School Alumni Association. Your membership is free and permanent in this alliance whose aims are both social and charitable.

Following a number of class and multi-class reunions in the 50's and 60's that were very successful, Moya Henderson, then faculty, and Ron Pendergast, Class of '57 and then a faculty member, planned a retirement party for Paul Summers, who was a member of the original faculty that opened the school in 1938. This retirement party was for all alumni, classes, and staff. It was an outstanding success. Following his retirement, Mr. Summers and Dick Hinson (Class of '48), and others formed the Alumni Association with a constitution and established a trust fund for grants to graduating seniors to assist in their continuing education in the names of students who died in the military service of our country.

The association is open to all former students, staff, and faculty. It facilitates class reunions and maintains a 20,000-plus name and address file from the school's opening in 1938 to the present. Currently, its automated file contains the addresses of over 56% of the alumni, filed alphabetically and by class. You need only inform the Alumni Association of your address changes as you move through life by sending a postcard to the Alumni, Palm Springs High School, 2401 E. Baristo Rd., Palm Springs, CA 92262. Each class has at least one representative who helps keep its class's address file up-to-date and who helps arrange reunions. If you wish to participate, contact the Alumni at the high school address.

Nostalgia for a reunion may set in as early as 5 years after graduation; certainly in 20 years. To date, there have been fifty-nine, the grandest being the school's 50th anniversary celebration held at the Palm Springs Convention Center in 1988. It was a sitdown dinner served to 1600 alumni and guests! Social events over the years have ranged from picnics to homecoming games; from tail-gate parties to black-tie dinners.

Through the years, the Alumni Association has played an active role in recognizing worthy achievements and honoring graduates. It has, among other activities:

- 1) Paid annual tribute to fourteen alumni combat fatalities of WW II and the Vietnam War;
- 2) Managed an Association Scholarship Trust Fund and awarded 40 senior students scholarships, totaling more than $33,000;
- 3) Commended 12 local physicians for their gratis service to high school athletic programs;
- 4) Granted "Alumni Honored Teacher" status to 29 former faculty members;
- 5) Sent out innumerable mailers and supplied directory lists to class reunion organizers;
- 6) Recruited "Angel Bank-Rolling" to supply loans for reunion pre-event expenses;
- 7) Served as point-of-contact for alumni and their Alma Mater;
- 8) Conducted the "Names in Bricks" fund raising project to fund special school projects, such as computers for the library.

FALLEN ALUMNUS HONORED

The First Annual Raoul R. Prieto Memorial Golf Tournament was held on June 4, 2000 at the Canyon South Golf Course to benefit a group of military cadets at a middle school in Coachella. Raoul Prieto gave his life for his country on a bombing mission in Germany on April 6, 1945. The tournament was very successful, raising $9,000. 65 golfers played, and 27 organizations plus the Agua Caliente Tribe contributed to the tournament's success.

A LOOOOONG LINE

On December 7th, 1997, members of the Prieto family assembled to honor their patriarchs, Antony and Joseph Prieto. Tony and Joe's school days pre-dated PSHS, but thirty of their offspring attended here. Tony's eighth-grade teacher was Miss Katherine Finchey at Francis S. Stevens School in 1928. Joe remembers attending Banning High School.

PSHS Prieto alumni include the men pictured below as well as Raoul ('43), Alice ('48), Stella ('49), Vera ('50), Veronica ('54), Kenneth Prieto Cavales ('72), Veronica Prieto Fennimore ('73), Antony Prieto Cavales ('75), Yolanda ('78), Sandra ('79), Daphne ('81), Diane ('81), Janet ('84), Margaret ('85), Shannon ('98), Summer ('99), Tashana ('00), and more to come. It's a noble tradition!

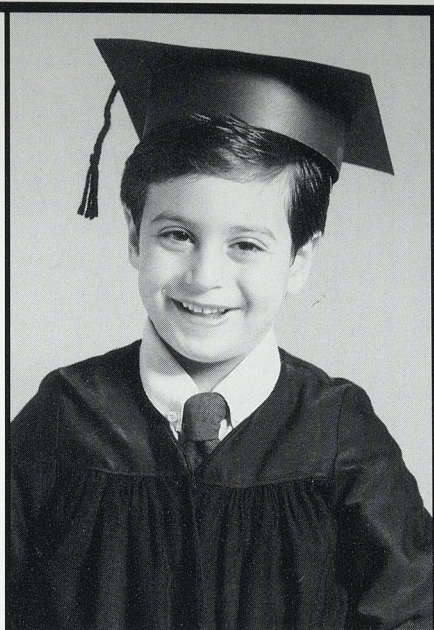

The Prieto Men (Sorry, ladies!)

Future PSHS students on each side of Antony and Joseph Prieto, Gary and baby ('74), Darrell ('77), Joseph Eugene ('57), Ben ('49), Ben Jr. ('75), Oscar ('51), Brian ('86), Frank ('48), Michael ('75), Phillip ('78), Dana ('79), Damon ('76), David ('98)

The Alumni Association welcomes you, wishes you success, and hopes you will maintain a close and satisfying relationship with us.

SOME
NEVER CHANGE!

Danielle,
 Thank you so much for being a truly wonderful best friend. No matter where our paths may wind, these past seven years we are leaving behind, you are going to be in my heart and mind, because I will always remember how special our friendship is. You're someone to laugh with and share with. To work with and join in the fun. You help me through rough times and are always there to share a warm smile. You're the best person who'll quietly listen when I just want to talk for awhile. You have given me a lifetime of memories and a heart full of love. You will never ever be forgotten. I love you so much. Good luck, KTT. I will miss you.

Always & forever,
Amber
 a.k.a. Ambi
 P.S. Whenever I see a cute bathing suit, I'll make sure and think of you.

Amber (Ambi),
 You have been my best friend through thick and thin, through fights with our parents and trouble with guys. You have always stuck by my side. I just wanted to say thank you for all that you have done for me (making me who I am today). Remember all of our goofy pictures out of sheer boredom; remember our deep conversations on the way to the movies; but most of all, remember all of the fun we had just being together. I am so thankful that you have been my best friend for the past seven years.
 Leaving next year is going to be the hardest thing for me to do, knowing that you won't be able to be by my side. I can't imagine not being able to walk down the street in my robe and slippers at 10 PM to borrow an outfit for the next day. I will always be your rock to lean upon, and I will always be your best friend--no matter how many miles apart we are. My love and friendship will never die, no matter what happens in our future.

Love always,
 Danielle

You have made us so proud! We can't believe this time has already arrived! Wow! This is the beginning of the rest of your life! You have so much to look forward to. You're the most loving and caring son, and we are the luckiest parents. You have taught your brother to be just the same. Grandma and Grandpa also want to congratulate you for all that you've done; they love you and know your future will be bright and full of success. You have achieved a great deal during your high school years: All-C.I.F, first team D.V.L in football, and D.V.L Heavyweight champion in wrestling. Not many young men have achieved all that you have. Please know that your family will always be here for you, and you're loved every minute of every day! May the Lord watch over you and keep you safe.

You have made us so proud! We can't believe this time has already arrived! Wow! This is the beginning of the rest of your life! You have so much to look forward to. You're the most loving and caring son, and we are the luckiest parents. You have taught your brother to be just the same. Grandma and Grandpa also want to congratulate you for all that you've done; they love you and know your future will be bright and full of success. You have achieved a great deal during your high school years: All-C.I.F, first team D.V.L in football, and D.V.L Heavyweight champion in wrestling. Not many young men have achieved all that you have. Please know that your family will always be here for you, and you're loved every minute of every day! May the Lord watch over you and keep you safe.
